The Lane Light Candee MacQueen,2020-12-23 The blanketed Wyoming sky was getting more threatening as each minute went by. Old-timers called it a mean snow sky. It was a thick, smooth, low cover of clouds in scary shades of gray. Colors that made your heart beat a little faster. The forecasters said this was a bad one. It was Christmas Eve day. The story that was to be played out would begin early in the day, with the players being put in place, one by one. Some were friends and others were complete strangers, each assigned their own special reason to be there and each important in His eyes. Eventually the one in charge would say action, enabling the night to play out as He had intended, for His reasons. That is, if everyone played their parts correctly. The old barn was ready. The heat coming from the wood stove would keep all warm. The old weathered oak planks used for the walls would manage to stay standing and keep the cold out, but it would take the faith of each player, new faith and old faith, to reach the outcome He intended. By noon, the entrance to the Kahler Ranch had taken on a dreaded, lonely appearance, as did the main road that ran out front. Snow was building up on the crossbar, making it hard to read the name of the ranch. The trees that Chico had tied up along the fence were taking a beating, their limbs sagging from the weight of the snow. Steph's red bows struggled to stay in place. The only traffic out on the road would be very early on, a few cars and trucks attempting to make that last desperate trip to town, each one praying that the storm would hold off, allowing them the needed time to get safely home. People knew time was running out. By late afternoon, there would be no travelers on the roads. Only five special people would find themselves out in the storm and they would share the same destiny-to find the Lane Light.

I Stand In The Light I've Cast Stephine Garner,2021-07-22 Denise has always been the apple of her father's eye. She keeps her head down, she works hard, and she studies harder. She is taught at an early age that you perpetually give your best. Denise is a young lady who lives an ordinary, dull life. One day, she meets a guy who blows her away. Over time, she falls in love. Ever since then, her life becomes chaos. His name is Winston. However, everyone knows him as J.R. He has been in the street life since his preteens with no plans of getting out. J.R. has a son, whom he doesn't know about until the child is two years old. When he does find out, he thinks it is best to hide his son from Denise. He falls in love with her from the first time he lays eyes on her. Denise is eventually kidnapped. The only thing that gives her some piece is knowing he is looking for her. Denise is very reserved, very strong-willed, and very independent. These very well may be the only things that will keep her alive throughout this endeavor. Winston needs them to see he is not a child but a grown man at fourteen. He must go in hard on every job. He must be better. He must be smarter, and more importantly, he must be faster than the best in the set to be taken seriously. Things in his crew start to fall apart. As an alternative to trying to keep it together, he chooses for once to put himself first and to search for the woman who has given him purpose. His soul mate is taken on his watch, and he will set out to take her back. Everyone who is involved will pay with their lives.
