The New Orleans Voodoo Handbook Kenaz Filan,2011-08-16 A guide to the practices, tools, and rituals of New Orleans Voodoo as well as the many cultural influences at its origins • Includes recipes for magical oils, instructions for candle workings, and directions to create gris-gris bags and Voodoo dolls to attract love, money, justice, and healing and for retribution • Explores the major figures of New Orleans Voodoo, including Marie Laveau and Dr. John • Exposes the diverse ethnic influences at the core of Voodoo, from the African Congo to Catholic immigrants from Italy, France, and Ireland One of America's great native-born spiritual traditions, New Orleans Voodoo is a religion as complex, free-form, and beautiful as the jazz that permeates this steamy city of sin and salvation. From the French Quarter to the Algiers neighborhood, its famed vaulted cemeteries to its infamous Mardi Gras celebrations, New Orleans cannot escape its rich Voodoo tradition, which draws from a multitude of ethnic sources, including Africa, Latin America, Sicily, Ireland, France, and Native America. In The New Orleans Voodoo Handbook, initiated Vodou priest Kenaz Filan covers the practices, tools, and rituals of this system of worship as well as the many facets of its origins. Exploring the major figures of New Orleans Voodoo, such as Marie Laveau and Dr. John, as well as Creole cuisine and the wealth of musical inspiration surrounding the Mississippi Delta, Filan examines firsthand documents and historical records to uncover the truth behind many of the city's legends and to explore the oft-discussed but little-understood practices of the root doctors, Voodoo queens, and spiritual figures of the Crescent City. Including recipes for magical oils, instructions for candle workings, methods of divination, and even directions to create gris-gris bags, mojo hands, and Voodoo dolls, Filan reveals how to call on the saints and spirits of Voodoo for love, money, retribution, justice, and healing.

The Voodoo Doll Sylvia A. Witmore,2009-09-30 The beautiful Carolina coast is the setting for this novel. Kimberly Marshall's life was one most women would envy. She was sincere, beautiful and was married to a very rich older man who worshipped her. Her world came crashing down around her the day she discovered a Voodoo Doll in the bottom drawer of her husband's desk. The doll was made into the exact image of Kimberly, wearing a yellow dress identical to one of hers. She was shocked to discover the top of the dress was smeared with blood and long straight pins pierced through the chest straight into the back. Then, the threats began.....someone connected to her household was trying to kill her and each attemptbecame worse than the last one. Kim enlists the help of a handsome neighbor to come to her rescue and help her solve the mystery and stop the killing before both of them become victims themselves. Kim has a very hard time believing that her husband or anyone in his family is trying to murder her, but she discovers that only the persons in her household would have direct contact with her; the house is too well guarded for an outsider to be able to get that close to her. Mystery, mayhem, romanceand an unusual secret are combined in this book and will keep the reader guessing until the very end.

Voodoo Doll Drac Von Stoller,2013-03-21 Dr. Phillips was an archaeologist who had a hunger for finding the big one. Meaning a dig that would put him in history books, but Dr. Phillips wasn't a very patient man and if anyone got in his way of finding something worth celebrating they were a dead man. One night while Dr. Phillips was reading his newspaper and smoking his pipe he came across an interesting article that said there was a dig deep in the jungles of Africa, but no one has been able to recover the artifacts only to die trying. Being that Dr. Phillips's ego and temper were so big he wasn't afraid of anything, knowing that if he were to bring ancient artifacts back to the U.S., he would get his wish of being famous and in history books. So, Dr. Phillips chartered a plane and brought two of his closest colleagues along with him, Dr. Reeves and Dr. Smith. Dr. Phillips only brought his colleagues along in case they were to discover the artifacts first only to be shot in the back and left in the jungle for the wild animals to have a feast on. Dr. Phillips and his colleagues arrived late afternoon at the dig site just to survey the area before the dig in the morning. Dr. Phillips could hardly sleep that night knowing in the morning the dig would begin and hopefully not take a week to find the ancient artifacts that would bring fame and fortune his way. Dr. Phillips paced back and forth outside the tent and decided to load his pistol and make sure he had enough ammo on him to stop anyone that got in his way. Morning finally arrived and Dr. Reeves and Dr. Smith shared a pot of coffee on their portable stove outside their tent with Dr. Phillips before starting their dig. Dr. Reeves said, Dr. Phillips do you think we'll find anything worth bringing back to the States? Dr. Phillips replied, I didn't come all this way for a weekend getaway and spend thousands of dollars for just the heck of it. You better believe we're not coming back home empty-handed. Dr. Smith chimed in and said, I've known Dr. Phillips many years and I've never known him to play around when it comes to something as serious as this. Okay, Dr. Reeves and Dr. Smith are we ready to make history? They said, You bet we are! The three Doctors set off into the jungle to start the dig. Dr. Reeves asked, Who is that man over there? Dr. Phillips replied he's probably trying to steal the ancient artifacts out of that cave. What are we going to do? exclaimed Dr. Smith. I tell you what we're going to do. I'm going to tell him to get off this property because I paid a lot of money securing this site, said an angry Dr. Phillips. Dr. Phillips approached the man who was wearing a headdress and said Excuse me, sir! But you're going to have to leave because my colleagues and I have a lot of work to do, and I don't need anyone snooping around or disturbing this dig site. I'm only going to ask you nicely one time, if you don't leave this moment, I will be forced to shoot you and let the wild animals dispose of your body. The old man replied, I'm not going anywhere, You and your friends are the ones who will have to leave because this is my ancestor's sacred ground, not yours. Dr. Phillips pulled his gun out of his holster pointed the gun at the old man's head and said I'll give you two seconds to leave If you don't you're a dead man. The old man laughed and pulled out a doll that looked exactly like Dr. Phillips and took out a needle then poked it in the side of the doll's neck and Dr. Phillips dropped to the ground.

Object Performance in the Black Atlantic Paulette Richards,2023-07-28 Given that slaveholders prohibited the creation of African-style performing objects, is there a traceable connection between traditional African puppets, masks, and performing objects and contemporary African American puppetry? This study approaches the question by looking at the whole performance complex surrounding African performing objects and examines the material culture of object performance. Object Performance in the Black Atlantic argues that since human beings can attribute private, personal meanings to objects obtained for personal use such as dolls, vessels, and quilts, the lines of material culture continuity between African and African American object performance run through objects that performed in ritual rather than theatrical capacity. Split into three parts, this book starts by outlining the spaces where the African American object performance complex persisted through the period of slavery. Part Two traces how African Americans began to reclaim object performance in the era of Jim Crow segregation and Part Three details how increased educational and economic opportunities along with new media technologies enabled African Americans to use performing objects as a powerful mode of resistance to the objectification of Black bodies. This is an essential study for any students of puppetry and material performance, and particularly those concerned with African American performance and performance in North America more broadly.
