The Code of Honor John Lyde Wilson,2019-11-21 Provides a detailed set of rules and guidelines for the conduct of duels and the roles of the participants involved. This work offers a unique insight into the customs and etiquettes of a bygone era, shedding light on the principles that governed honor and combat. A fascinating look into the world of dueling, it's both a historical document and a reflection on the values of honor and integrity. An essential read for those curious about the societal norms and values of past centuries.
