The vivid poetic prose seeks to convey a spiritual understanding of love from the point of view of a single black man who isn’t interested in getting married but wants to experience love. The writer probes into the past to investigate how negative connotations, from what people understood of themselves in past times, can influence and even create religious dogma. In the midst of an extensive and gripping spiritual analysis of the themes the book confronts, the author aims to assess whether it is possible for God’s will to be done on earth as it is in heaven, which is surely essential if humankind is to enjoy peace, and love.
