The WordStorm Julie A. Wallace, 2020-04 The WordStorm is a collection of poems written over a lifetime of experience of scribbling in notebooks, participating in writer's groups, reading at poetry open mics, working a plethora of day jobs, and relishing a never-ending exploration of spirituality. The collection explores the inside world of spirituality, the outside world of nature, and shares sharp observations about life and living all around the town. Moving Beyond Icebreakers Stanley Pollack, Mary Fusoni, 2005 Moving Beyond Icebreakers contains 440 pages packed with insight and ideas about building community, engaging students in learning, and making meetings work. It describes an innovative meeting format and documents over 300 interactive exercises (not just icebreakers) that enable readers to: * Achieve group goals * Build relationships * Resolve group problems * Teach, lead, motivate, and inspire The first 130 pages describe how to use icebreakers and other interactive methods to help group members make decisions, create new ideas, solve problems, resolve conflicts, and understand new concepts. In these pages you will find a five-part meeting structure that you can use to become an expert facilitator, following an approach that engages both youth and adults in meeting the group's goals. You will also find detailed agendas, lesson plans, and scenarios that show how this approach works in the real world. Table of contents: * Why use interactive methods? * Working into interaction * Coping with resistance and fear of failure * The interactive meeting format * Interactive exercises (name exercises, warm-up questions, five-minute springboard exercises, fifteen-minute springboard exercises, in-your-chair springboard exercises, tag-style springboard exercises, springboard exercises for groups both large and small, the rest of the springboard exercises, work-station exercises, evaluation exercises).

Doing Good By Doing Good Peter Baines, 2014-12-29 Bring the heart of your company into the community with effective CSR Doing Good by Doing Good shows companies how to improve the bottom line by implementing an engaging, authentic, and business-enhancing program that helps staff and business thrive. International CSR consultant Peter Baines draws upon lessons learnt from the challenges faced in his career as a police officer, forensic investigator, and founder of Hands Across the Water to describe the Australian CSR landscape, and the factors that make up a program that benefits everyone involved. Case studies illustrate the real effect of CSR on both business and society, with clear guidance toward maximizing involvement, engaging all employees, and improving the bottom line. The case studies draw out the companies that are focusing on creating shared value in meeting the challenges of society whilst at the same time bringing strong economic returns. Consumers are now expecting that big businesses with ever-increasing profits give back to the community from which those profits arise. At the same time, shareholders are demanding their share and are happy to see dividends soar. Getting this right is a balancing act, and Doing Good by Doing Good helps companies delineate a plan of action for getting it done. Readers will: Define an effective CSR strategy that promotes better business and makes a real impact Understand the current landscape to evaluate the CSR options that are right for your company Understand why corporate philanthropy is no longer enough Identify the hard and soft key performance indicators that help keep your program on track Gain an understanding of the concept of shared value and the importance to business Gain insight into each step of the CSR process, from interest, to information, to implementation The concept of CSR is not new, but traditional payroll deductions and volunteer days are out-dated and grossly ineffective. Today, companies are building simple, well-constructed programs that are changing business and changing lives on a much grander scale. Doing Good by Doing Good provides a fool proof strategy for CSR planning, with value to the company, employees, and community at large.

The Well of Lost Plots Jasper Fforde, 2004-08-03 The third installment in Jasper Fforde's New York Times bestselling series follows literary detective Thursday Next on another adventure in her alternate reality of literature-obsessed England—from the author of The Constant Rabbit Jasper Fforde has done it again in this genre-bending blend of crime fiction, fantasy, and top-drawer literary entertainment. After two rollicking New York Times bestselling adventures through Western literature, resourceful BookWorld literary detective Thursday Next definitely needs some downtime. And what better place for a respite than in the hidden depths of the Well of Lost Plots, where all unpublished books reside? But peace and quiet remain elusive for Thursday, who soon discovers that the Well is a veritable linguistic free-for-all, where grammassites run rampant, plot devices are hawked on the black market, and lousy books—like the one she has taken up residence in—are scrapped for salvage. To make matters worse, a murderer is stalking the personnel of Jurisfiction and it's up to Thursday to save the day. A brilliant feat of literary showmanship filled with wit, fantasy, and effervescent originality, this Ffordian tour de force will appeal to fans of Douglas Adams and P. G. Wodehouse.

Terra Sandra Thibodeaux, Sitok Srengenge, 2007-01-01 TERRA is a unique and timely publication representing the best prose and poetry from over 40 guest writers at WordStorm, the NT Writers' Festival. It is the first bilingual publication of its kind with leading and emerging writers from the Austronesian region published in English and Bahasa Indonesia languages. At a time when 'Terror' too readily dominates preconceptions throughout the region, particularly between Indonesia and Australia, this anthology offers a welcome and illuminating exchange of themes and ideas of local and universal import. In short, the anthology represents an outstanding selection of (mostly) previously unpublished contemporary literature from Indigenous and Non-Indigenous Australia, East Timor, Indonesia and Singapore.

Thursday Next: First Among Sequels Jasper Fforde, 2007-07-24 The fifth installment in Jasper Fforde's New York Times bestselling series follows literary detective Thursday Next on another adventure in her alternate reality of literature-obsessed England—from the author of The Constant Rabbit Jasper Fforde has thrilled readers everywhere with his gloriously outlandish novels in the Thursday Next and Nursery Crime series. And with another genre-bending blend of crime fiction, fantasy, and top-drawer literary entertainment is Thursday Next: First Among Sequels, Fforde's famous literary detective is once again ready to make the world safe for fiction. Thursday Next is grappling with a host of problems in BookWorld: a recalcitrant new apprentice, the death of Sherlock Holmes, and the inexplicable departure of comedy from the once-hilarious Thomas Hardy novels, to name just a few—all while captaining the ship Moral Dilemma and facing down her most vicious enemy yet: herself.

Playing with Fire Nic Fine, Jo Broadwood, Fiona Macbeth, Nik Pitcher, Carey Haslam, 2011-08-15 Playing with Fire is a structured manual and training programme to help youth and conflict practitioners work with young people caught up in conflict and violence. All aspects of conflict are covered, from the initial igniting spark to the roaring blaze. The manual includes ideas and session plans that can be adapted to the needs of a particular group. Sessions include exercises and activities that explore situations of conflict, develop skills to deal with them, and rehearse techniques for future use. The training section outlines how to deliver the programme, including how to use role-play and work constructively with conflict in the training room. This second edition includes new sessions on working with issues of identity and prejudice and working with wider community issues, as well as new exercises and activities. Appendices include alternative session plans and ideas on games and group work exercises. This is a valuable guide for youth practitioners and all those working with young people who face conflict or violence.

A Thursday Next Digital Collection: Novels 1-5 Jasper Fforde, 2011-03-08 A Thursday Next Digital Collection: Novels 1-5 Fall into the world of Thursday Next with the first five novels in the New York Times bestselling series featuring the renowned Special Operative in literary detection who is "part Bridget Jones, part Nancy Drew, and part Dirty Harry" (Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times).

Teaching Early Literacy Diane M. Barone,Marla H. Mallette,Shelley Hong Xu,2005-01-01 Grounded in cutting-edge theory and research about literacy development, this book is filled with practical assessment and instructional ideas for teachers of pre-K through grade 3. Engaging vignettes show how everyday conversations and activities offer rich opportunities both for evaluating children's current level of knowledge and for helping them progress toward more sophisticated and rewarding interactions with reading and writing. Throughout, the book highlights ways to work effectively with English language learners and their families, a theme that is the exclusive focus of two chapters. Other timely topics covered include creative uses of technology and ways to incorporate popular culture into the classroom. Over two dozen reproducible assessment tools and handouts enhance the utility of this volume as an instructional resource, professional development tool, or graduate-level text.

Seeds of Hope Bereavement and Loss Activity Book Caroline Jay,2014-10-21 'Life is full of changes; they happen all the time. Some changes are harder to cope with than others.' Seeds of Hope Bereavement and Loss Activity Book uses nature to help children understand death, loss and change in a gentle and honest way. Full of creative activities, such as choosing an insect or plant and using it to draw a life cycle, or making a paper memory tree of happy and sad memories, it helps children learn about loss and death, the cycle of life and how to cope with and express feelings of sadness and grief. This book is ideal for parents and carers, teachers, therapists and counsellors to use with children aged 5+ who have suffered any type of loss or are dealing with change, or who are bereaved.

Big Podcast – Grow Your Podcast Audience, Build Listener Loyalty, and Get Everybody Talking About Your Show David Hooper,2019-03-12 Is it worth doing a podcast if nobody listens? You started your podcast because you want to: - Spread an important message - Share your passion - Make money But your podcast hasn't quite taken off like you thought it would. What happened? This book is for podcasters who can't quite figure out what they're doing wrong (and are ready to do things right). You'll learn: - Why your "natural personality" may be repelling to people and how to make it attract listeners to your podcast like a magnet (See p198) - What to do when a company tries to "lowball" you on advertising fees (do nothing, except send them the email on p424) - It's easy to screw up an interview. To be sure you don't run into any problems, use my "guest contract" on p311. - A six-word "trick" (learned from a 20-year radio veteran) that will instantly make you a better host (it's on p210) - 9 reasons to kill an interview before it happens – ignore these "red flags" and you'll be sorry (p299) - What Victoria's Secret models know about podcasting (even though you never hear them talk) – this lesson starts on p208! - Nervous on the mic? You have lots of company – 75% of podcasters to be exact. I give you a 5-step way to cure your "stage fright" on p229. - If you're scared of getting bad reviews, don't worry – I have three simple ways to handle critics on p236 (two of which can turn critics into fans) - Why copying top podcasters may be killing your podcast (I share the story on p116) and how to develop a podcasting style that works for you (and will attract more listeners) - My 3-step "episode teaser" formula – it's boring, but it works (get it on p110) - Thinking of doing a "daily" podcast? You must read p103 before you start. - Want to impress a guest? See the chapter starting on p321 for my 3-step followup "ritual" that will make being on your podcast unforgettable (and encourage guests to promote your episodes) And that's just the start ... This book contains my complete system on how to attract listeners, deliver your message effectively, and build a big podcast. You can't build a big podcast on hope. But you can build a big podcast. And if you're ready to do just that, read this book.

The Learning Communities Guide to Improving Reading Instruction Valerie Hastings Gregory,Jan Rozzelle Nikas,2017-02-14 The themes of attending to individual needs, providing assessment-driven instruction, and creating long-term, focused professional development plans are solid and consistent throughout.
