Garage Sale Gourmet Anita Chagaris, Randy Lyman, 2005 Garage sales can be a fun, creative, and often a less expensive way for people to redecorate a home while developing a sense of personal style and a feeling of accomplishment from their creations. This handy guide takes readers step-by-step through the process of creating a nice, stylish dwelling on a garage sale budget. The first section of the guide shows how it's done, covering topics such as taking a home inventory, finding the best sales, planning time-saving shopping days, and negotiating better deals. Describing what it takes to turn dust into gold, experienced garage salers show how to repair and refurbish slightly forlorn treasures and hold a more profitable garage sale themselves. For those interested in the big score, specific tips are provided for finding and researching collectibles. An informative directory provides addresses, URLs, phone numbers, book publishers, and other garage sale resources.

Yard Sale Susan McCloskey, Catherine Peters, Houghton Mifflin Company, 1997-09

Yard Sale Cal Kirby, 2001-11-21 This book pits the good against the bad and the good win--how imaginative. However, it is not your typical murder mystery in that the hero, Chas Kirkland, is a married homicide detective and he doesn't get involved in affairs with every woman he meets. The story revolves around a friend of the detective who disappears travelling to the beach in Delaware. The detective learns that other women are also missing and he pulls out all the stops with his fellow police officers, his wife and their friends to find the women. Will he be too late or does he rescue them? Is one of the missing women a secret lover of a state Senator--did he kill her? You learn to hate the villainous leader of the Sparks Clan and root for justice to be done. Root for Chas and he might let you in on some other exciting police stories.

Yard Sale Today Henry Lansing Woodward, 2021-06-16 Henry L. Woodward is a devoted Sailer and a US Navy veteran who served as a Combat Medical Corpsman in Vietnam. At the end of his service, he took his discharge in Hawaii and stayed in Honolulu and began a new life. Within less than two years, he graduated as a paramedic from the State of Hawaii Paramedic School and worked "on the road" on all the islands for over a year. This experience ended when he was asked to and accepted the position of ambulance services inspection officer for the State of Hawaii, Department of Health, Emergency Medical Services System Division. In that capacity, he was responsible for inspecting all ambulances on the seven islands of the state which had ambulances and enforcing compliance with the state ambulance service regulations. Because of his successes in regulation enforcement, he was then offered and again accepted the position of program officer for all Emergency Medical Services for the entire state of Hawaii. In this capacity, he was responsible for all 911 ambulances and ambulance services, all the paramedics and all the EMTs for the state. Within two years of becoming a paramedic, he had advanced from being a paramedic to running the whole program for Emergency Medical Services for the entire state of Hawaii. Following these two successes, he left the Department of Health and became an international paramedic, traveling to forty-five countries by working wherever he went to earn money for the next stop. During this time, from 1976 through 1994, he maintained a journal completing nineteen handwritten volumes. It is from these incredible experiences that the beginning inspirations for Life's Unknown Poems were first realized. He ultimately returned to his hometown of Vancouver, Washington, where he worked his final year as a paramedic. The next challenge was to finish his bachelor's degree at Washington State University for which he paid by learning the art of "Yard Sailing" from a lifelong friend named Mr. Dan Kelly. It is from his three years of doing Yard and Swap Meet sales in order to pay for his school fees that this book, Yard Sale Today, has its origins. After completing his bachelor's degree and the writing of Yard Sale Today, Mr. Woodward continued to write and has just completed his second book, Life's Unknown Poems. This book was inspired by his travels through forty-five countries as mentioned above and will be out of editing and available for sales in the Spring of 2021. His third book, Code Three—Life of a Paramedic, is now being written. It is a collection of the ambulance calls which continued to haunt Mr. Woodward since they were first experienced during his years as a paramedic. All the deaths, all the tragedies are written as they happened, and as Mr. Woodward told me, "It was time to get rid of them. I didn't want to continue remembering them all and go on to die so sad. I had to do something, so I wrote them out to get them out." For now, Mr. Woodward hopes you enjoy Yard Sale Today in either the print or online versions.
