GOLDEN CITY HUIJUN ZHU,2017-04-18 Golden City tells the story that the hero Zhong Yi was ambitious after stepping out of the school gate trying to find his proper place in life while weighed down with work in a tumultuous world of the true mingled with the false. He suffered from bloodless competition and hypocrisy. The secular values silently swallowed his youth time. When he was awakened and wanted to turn his once dream into reality, he found that “The bad fate gave him a hard role to play. That was really a both funny and annoying play! The novel has a reality description of officialdom, work and love in contemporary China and relentlessly reveals the ugly scar of human nature which is hidden by a common person trying his best in every day. The theme of the novel is not to lash the reality but more to eulogize true love and deathless ideal of youth. The grief and weakness in youth didn’t expressed by the groaning at night. The truth of life and the never-giving up will of fighting clued in the heroes and heroines in the book. Love without yielding the fruit seemed to be sadly beautiful. This novel has a cultural geographical background of Golden City, the capital of the Yellow River. The hero Zhong Yi in his ten years’ youth time experienced the immortal love and ambition and gave a powerful answer to the meaning of living by saying good bye to his life. In everyone's heart there is a city being guarded intentionally or unintentionally. The city confers different meanings of life to different people and, the destinies of the different cities vary along their life path. Fire beacon is conflagrating violently in the battle field scheduled by destiny.
