Elements of Islamic Studies Sayyid Saeed Akhtar Rizvi, A greatly beneficial text book for students of all ages who wish to learn or review the basic fundamentals of Islamic studies. This booklet is based mostly on the lessons of Maulana Sayyid Sa'eed Akhtar Rizvi, though at the time of editing he has added some lessons from the 'Book of Salat' (Majlis-ul-Muslimeen, Karachi), and 'Diniyat' (Rah al-Najat Office, Karachi), with necessary adaptations. This edition has been completely revised (according to the Fatwa of Agha Syed Abu'l Qasim al-Khu'i, Dama Dhilluhul-Aali, Najaf, Iraq). Also, many subjects have been added because of the popular demand. For example, details of Ghusls, prayers of Ayaat, Jumu'ah, 'Eidain, Mayyit and Jama'at. Simply a must read for those that are unable to attend Hawza (Islamic University) yet wish to learn at least the basics of religion by means of authentic texts as compiled in this booklet

Neti Neti Answers To Devotees In Seach Of God Har Prem Pal Singh And Arvind Moladia, 2023-09-08

In God's Path Robert G. Hoyland, 2015 In just over a hundred years--from the death of Muhammad in 632 to the beginning of the Abbasid Caliphate in 750--the followers of the Prophet swept across the whole of the Middle East, North Africa, and Spain. Their armies threatened states as far afield as the Franks in Western Europe and the Tang Empire in China. The conquered territory was larger than the Roman Empire at its greatest expansion, and it was claimed for the Arabs in roughly half the time. How this collection of Arabian tribes was able to engulf so many empires, states, and armies in such a short period of time is a question that has perplexed historians for centuries. Most recent popular accounts have been based almost solely on the early Muslim sources, which were composed centuries later for the purpose of demonstrating that God had chosen the Arabs as his vehicle for spreading Islam throughout the world. In this ground-breaking new history, distinguished Middle East expert Robert G. Hoyland assimilates not only the rich biographical and geographical information of the early Muslim sources but also the many non-Arabic sources, contemporaneous or near-contemporaneous with the conquests. The story of the conquests traditionally begins with the revelation of Islam to Muhammad. In God's Path, however, begins with a broad picture of the Late Antique world prior to the Prophet's arrival, a world dominated by the two superpowers of Byzantium and Sasanian Persia, the two eyes of the world. In between these empires, in western (Saudi) Arabia, emerged a distinct Arab identity, which helped weld its members into a formidable fighting force. The Arabs are the principal actors in this drama yet, as Hoyland shows, the peoples along the edges of Byzantium and Persia--the Khazars, Bulgars, Avars, and Turks--also played important roles in the remaking of the old world order. The new faith propagated by Muhammad and his successors made it possible for many of the conquered peoples to join the Arabs in creating the first Islamic Empire. Well-paced and accessible, In God's Path presents a pioneering new narrative of one the great transformational periods in all of history.

The Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam Hazrat Mirza

Ghulam Ahmad, 1996 Originally written for the Conference of Great Religions held at Lahore on December 26-29, 1896, the Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam has since served as an introduction to Islam for seekers after the truth and religious knowledge in different parts of the world. The present issue includes several lost pages not included in the essay that was read out at Lahore. It deals with the following five broad themes, set by the moderators of the Conference: 1. The physical, moral and spiritual states of man 2. The state of man after death 3. The object of man's life and the means to its attainment 4. The operation of the practical ordinances of the Law in this life and the next 5. Sources of Divine knowledge.--Publisher's description.

Bastions of the Believers Yoginder Sikand,2005 The emergence of radical Islamist movements in various parts of the world, the rise and fall of the Taliban in Afghanistan, the 9/11 attacks, widespread vilification spearheaded by Hindutva groups--all these and more have made madrasas a much talked about institution. Focussing on the madrasas of India, Bastions of the Believers seeks to critically interrogate sensationalist and stereotypical images of the madrasas by highlighting their diversity and the complex social roles that they play in the lives of many Muslims. Madrasas, as a rule, represent a conservative form of theology and jurisprudence that is, in many ways, ill-suited to a modern, pluralistic society. Much of what is taught in madrasas is outdated and unscientific (the Deoband madrasa, for instance, still insists that the sun revolves around the earth, and it has special seating arrangements for invisible jinns). Yet, obscurantism need not necessarily lead to militancy and hostility against others. For instance, in the decades leading to India's independence, the Deobandis, representing an extreme form of religious conservatism, insisted on Hindu-Muslim amity and a joint struggle for a free and united India. It is this integrated view of madrasas and a more liberal and open understanding of Islam, and indeed of all faiths, which Yoginder Sikand seeks to promote--for he believes this is one of the principal duties confronting committed believers if we have to learn to live together despite our differences. Bastions of the Believers covers a wide range of thought-provoking issues--from the origins and development of the institution to critiques of madrasa curricula and the alleged links between madrasas and Islamist militancy--making this a must-read for all those interested in creating and preserving a just social order.

The Hadith Mufti Taqi Usmani,2017-06 Sahih Bukhari is a collection of sayings and deeds of Prophet Muhammad (pbuh), also known as the sunnah. The reports of the Prophet's sayings and deeds are called ahadith. Bukhari lived a couple of centuries after the Prophet's death and worked extremely hard to collect his ahadith. Each report in his collection was checked for compatibility with the Qur'an, and the veracity of the chain of reporters had to be painstakingly established. Bukhari's collection is recognized by the overwhelming majority of the Muslim world to be one of the most authentic collections of the Sunnah of the Prophet (pbuh). Bukhari (full name Abu Abdullah Muhammad bin Ismail bin Ibrahim bin al-Mughira al-Ja'fai) was born in 194 A.H. and died in 256 A.H. His collection of hadith is considered second to none. He spent sixteen years compiling it, and ended up with 2,602 hadith (9,082 with repetition). His criteria for acceptance into the collection were amongst the most stringent of all the scholars of a hadith. It is a complete Volume 9 of Sahih al Bikhari to seek the guidance of Islam

Don't Neglect Prayers, become true Muslims heart & soul

Mohd Mursalin Sa'ad, 2022-03-16 This book is a series of Muslims and reverts guidance to understand more about Islam. It is written to talk about challengers facing Muslims, some relevant tips, and solutions. The best book is to write a simple book without technical jargons and heavy concepts. The author will do his best to show evidence, such as verses from the Quran and hadith. The author also inserts some questions and replies to create an interactive book. However, with humiliation and respect the author feels there are much better book then this small book. Why I wrote this book? Turning my head around, I noticed some young and older Muslims neglecting obligatory prayers. I even ask them their reason for not performing prayers. Some excuses as usual. Oh, I think my cloth is filthy, some said: I am tired. And the quotes of excuses become more and more. By the time you know it, neglecting prayer is normal and that Muslim has no feelings or a sense of guilt.

Something is wrong somewhere. Sometimes words of wisdom and advice has been said to the man who neglected prayers, but he never takes heed of advice, so perhaps I need to change a different approach to send the message to him, but if the Muslim and revert is across a vast ocean. Thus, this e-book is the only message that I can help him. But bear in mind that a person cannot give guidance but only Allah SWT may open his heart to witness truth by repenting from his sins of neglecting prayers.

Content 1-Why some Muslims neglected prayers 2-What happen to the Muslims 3-Seek knowledge 4-Be pious 5-What's life in comparison to the hereafter? 6- Why Allah commands us to pray 7- What's the mindset? 8- Is prayer obligatory 9- What if a person delayed prayer? 10- How to take ablution 11- How to perform prayer correctly? 12- A person died and needed to repay his prayers 13- How to repay neglected prayers? 14- I didn't pray but fast in the month of Ramadhan, what should I do? 15- The importance of congregation prayers 16- Diligent in prayer but committing immorality 17- Why supplication of a Muslim not granted by ALLAH SWT? Words from the Author "After reading this book you will have a sense of purpose to turn into a new leaf. We hope this small handy book has led you to the basic discovery of Islam. I reckon by reading more books and attending courses will enhance your knowledge which will lead you to faith and guidance. keep it up, you are on the way to being True Muslims and Reverts. We hope you Share our book links to people you know, perhaps you can save somebody. Next in our pipeline more Muslim Reverts series. May Allah grant us paradise and protect us from hellfire. Ameen!"

Institutional Islamic Economics and Finance Ahsan

Shafiq,2022-03-31 Institutional economics claims that institutions and policies rather than the size of labour force, technology or capital investment are pivotal for growth or under-development. In this regard there are two kinds of institutions: external institutions expressed in the form of laws, organisations, regulations, companies, banks and the like and internal institutions, which are found in the hearts and consciences of individuals. Against this backdrop, this book acquaints readers with the basic concepts related to institutional economics. It then brings to light the theoretical concepts related to the institutional perspectives on Islamic economics, particularly highlighting areas where Islamic economic institutions lay at the crossroads with conventional ones. The book also reflects upon the organisational arrangements that comply with the basic tenets of Islamic institutional economics. Further, it brings a collection of real-world case studies into discussion to show the models of Islamic institutions that are pragmatic in today's business environment. The book contains novel dimensions on the subject, includes conceptual debates as well as practical examples and explores hot topics such as waqf and fintech from an Islamic perspective. This is the first book to exclusively cover this topic and is written by well-known and respected international economists from the field. Since the book is written in an accessible style and the concepts are expressed in plain language, it will find an audience among academics, researchers and students in economics and Islamic economic studies, as well as policymakers and professionals engaged in the Islamic finance industry, seeking to make their services and products conform to an Islamic institutional perspective.

Politics of Piety Saba Mahmood, 2012 An analysis of Islamist cultural politics through the ethnography of a thriving, grassroots women's piety movement in the mosques of Cairo, Egypt. Unlike those organized Islamist activities that seek to seize or transform the state, this is a moral reform movement whose orthodox practices are commonly viewed as inconsequential to Egypt's political landscape. The author's exposition of these practices challenges this assumption by showing how the ethical and the political are linked within the context of such movements.
