Jolie Canoli Phonics Alphabet Jolie Canoli,2021 Learn phonics with letters that looks like their sounds! Each letter shape looks like the sound that letter says-- and every sound is included! Often alphabet books teach G is for giraffe, but they don't teach G says /g/ like gargle, and G says /j/ like giraffe. This book teaches children all 26 letters, all their consonant sounds, and the soft and long sounds of every vowel. Made especially for visual learners, these letters are colorful, have a memorable and humorous story with plenty of mnemonics and sound repetition to reinforce the sound or multiple sounds each letter makes. Buddy and Pip, a beloved dog and hedgehog, are featured every few pages going on adventures that show children simple 2- or 3-letter words. Use these illustrations to teach your child how letters sound blend to form words. Lastly this book contains tracing practice so the child can practice forming each word with their finger. Great for English language learners and children learning to read, this book will make learning phonics a breeze!
