The Four Spiritual Laws of Prosperity Edwene Gaines, 2005-09-03 An empowering message about the true meaning of prosperity—to help anyone achieve a life of spiritual and material abundance. Imagine if you could achieve a life of true prosperity, enjoying: - A vitally alive, healthy body through which you experience relationships that are always satisfying and intimate, honest, and nurturing - Work you love so much that it's not work, it's play - All the money you can spend Living at this exceptional level is not only possible—it's right there for you, Edwene Gaines explains, if only you abide by the four spiritual laws of prosperity. Gaines, an ordained Unity minister, has been delivering her inspirational, life-changing message to audiences of all faiths at workshops across the country. Explaining the four spiritual laws, she shows why it is essential to: - Tithe to the person or place where you have received your spiritual nourishment - Set clear-cut, tangible goals - Forgive everyone all the time, especially yourself - Seek, discover, and follow your divine purpose, which will help you to assign significance to your life and bring a passion to all that you do The solution to financial problems lies within, Gaines insists, and here she shows you how to raise your abundance consciousness and free yourself from a life of deprivation and want.

Create PROSPERITY LaTeef Terrell Warnick, 2011-02 Creating prosperity begins with the spiritual principles of consciousness. Learn to create true lasting prosperity. The Law of Attraction is a widely misunderstood concept that focuses on the result of thought and not the cause. The Law of Attraction is the most popular term for using the power of visualization and understanding the connection between our thoughts and our experiences. But is it truly the most accurate interpretation of how we really experience life? In order to examine this idea, we must understand a little about the mind. Most of psychology and science acknowledge that there is at least a conscious mind and a subconscious mind. Freud speaks of the id, ego and superego but he is primarily referring to the personality. Yogis on the other hand believe that there is a superconscious or universal mind. We all have access to the higher level of mind. In fact, many would go further to suggest that this is the only true mind. This is the mind of Spirit or God. The rishis believe that there is only one Creator and this Essence is the only source capable of an original thought and power. So how does this relate to our conscious minds? Well, it suggests that no one has ever had an original thought. Einstein didn't think up the Law of Relativity. It already existed way before he was able to merely crack the code to understand it. Similarly, all ideas of Newton's Laws of Motion, Quantum Physics, Electricity, Magnetism, etc already all exist since the beginning of creation. We, as man, simply are attempting to understand these laws of nature that are the source of creation and the world around us. So to come full circle, due to a power of maya which is an illusion of individuality, we believe ourselves to be separate entities. The fact is that we are, have always been and will always be intrinsically connected not just to one another but to the Source of all creation, manifestation and the universe itself. To go one step further, the soul, which is immaterial, is made in the image and likeness of Spirit which is also immaterial. This means that our connection and reality transcends physical creation. We are truly spiritual beings. Likewise, we even transcend the mind. Scripture says be still and know that I am God. This stillness is more than just keeping the physical body still. Through the practice of yoga, you learn to still the mind and even the respiration, internal organs and ultimately the prana which is the intelligent life force within the physical and astral bodies. Samkhya Yoga discusses the 24 principles of creation. This is a very intricate discussion but what it suggests is that we don't truly ever attract anything. We are creators. However, we create on a much more subtle level and through the perception of individuality and the illusion of separateness, our ability to tap into our highest power and source is filtered or diluted through the ego. Thus, some who are in tune with the universal mind and infinite power within are able to create or manifest ideas, objects, experiences, etc almost instantaneously as in the cases of the miracles performed by Jesus and many other enlightened masters. While the majority of mankind creates (or attracts if you prefer) ideas, objects, experiences, etc that we sometimes desire but many times do not desire as they don't always suit our pleasures, preferences or wants. The key to becoming a more effective creator is to learn to still the mind, tap into your power source and learn the connection between manifesting the higher frequency vibrations of thought into the grosser vibrations of matter that we perceive as real relative experiences in life. Renewal Worship Steven Félix-Jäger, 2022-09-06 At its best, all Christian worship is led by the Holy Spirit. But is there a distinctive theology of Pentecostal worship? The Pentecostal church or the renewal movement is among the fastest-growing parts of the body of Christ around the world, which makes understanding its theology and practice critical for the future of the church. In this volume in IVP Academic's Dynamics of Christian Worship (DCW) series, theologian Steven Félix-Jäger offers a theology of renewal worship, including its biblical foundations, how its global nature is expressed in particular localities, and how charismatic worship distinctively shapes the community of faith. With his guidance, the whole church might understand better what it means to pray, Come, Holy Spirit! The Dynamics of Christian Worship series draws from a wide range of worshiping contexts and denominational backgrounds to unpack the many dynamics of Christian worship—including prayer, reading the Bible, preaching, baptism, the Lord's Supper, music, visual art, architecture, and more—to deepen both the theology and practice of Christian worship for the life of the church.

You Can Believe the Bible Willis C. Newman, 2010-06-15 This book is a compact overview of the Bible. It is more a book on what the Bible is, rather than what the Bible says. We live in a day when this great Book is considered a relic of the past, irrelevant or in some cases a danger to society. This book is designed to give the reader an overview of the nature of the Bible and its place in society. Many reasons, based on solid evidence, are listed demonstrating why we can take the Bible at face value. Our objective of this work is to challenge the non-believer to take the Bible seriously and to give a boldness and confidence to the believer. We can proclaim the Bible with assurance that it is truth from God to the human race. We can trust the Bible with decisions in our own personal life. It is a Book that we can use to form the foundation of our life, family, society, and nation.
