Jungle Air Karlene Petitt, 2018-01-16 Jungle Air is airline managed with fear by an evil baboon. This is a place where monkeys are pilots and paid with bananas to push buttons. No flying is allowed at Jungle Air. However, when the Jungle Aviation Administration mandates safety management systems and Jungle Air is ordered to diversify—monkey business is about to end. The Jungle Aviation Administration states, If you see something, say something, the essence of a reporting culture. However, when the first pilot tiger reports safety concerns, the evil baboon devises a plan to permanently remove her utilizing a military tactic. Destroying the tiger is the only way to send a message to all pilots to keep quiet. Can the tiger survive? The future of aviation safety at Jungle Air depends upon it.

Float Monkeys Jonathan Stratman, 2013-09-14 Southeast Alaska is a new world of islands, float planes and adventure for Will, Elias and Will's dog, Blackie. They're the new float monkeys-dock boys-at Spruce Cove Air who do all the loading, unloading and grunt work. So the boys need to adapt to life on the water and in the air-in a hurry! What's up with their fellow float monkey, redheaded, scrappy Ricky? What is Ricky not telling? And pilot Wild Wyatt? Can they survive him? Beneath the fun of a summer job at an island logging camp, with float planes and new friends, real danger lurks. Is the friendship that saved Will and Elias in a terrible blizzard, strong enough to survive a summer in the sun and someone new? Because when things go wrong, you don't have much time to figure out who your friends are.

The Girl With No Name Marina Chapman, 2021-11-15 In 1954, in a remote mountain village in South America, a little girl was abducted. She was four years old. Marina Chapman was stolen from her housing estate and abandoned deep in the Colombian jungle. That she survived is a miracle. Two days later, half-drugged, terrified, and starving, she came upon a troop of capuchin monkeys. Acting entirely on instinct, she tried to do what they did: copying their actions she slowly learned to fend for herself. So begins the story of her five years among the monkeys, during which time she gradually became feral; lost the ability to speak, lost all inhibition, lost any sense of being human, replacing human society with the social mores her new simian family. But society was eventually to reclaim her. At age ten she was discovered by a pair of hunters who took her to the lawless Colombian city of Cucuta where, in exchange for a parrot, they sold her to a brothel. When she learned that she was to be groomed for prostitution, she made her plans to escape. But her adventure was not over yet... In the vein of Slumdog Millionaire and City of God, this rousing story of a lost child who overcomes the dangers of the wild to finally reclaim her life will astonish readers everywhere.
