Wild Animal Alphabet Sue Owens, 1997-08-01 The story represents 26 different kinds of creatures and when they are compared to different races, religions and ethnic groups, it teaches children that differences and prejudices can be resolved amicably. All of the creatures, that were chosen, are in harmony with nature, which is what God intended. They all came together arguing, but they were able to sort out their decisions with the help of a very wise and respected mediator instead of resorting to violence. It teaches power structure. Consider the big whale, elephant and tiger who all have enormous power, yet they came together peacefully with the ladybug, hummingbird and caterpillar-and to think that none of the birds ate the caterpillar or the viceroy, who imitates the monarch butterfly because they have such a bitter taste. A wide assortment of animals are illustrated through paintings to represent each letter of the alphabet: birds, insects, sea dwelling creatures, plus those from the jungle, plains and forest areas. The book is 32 pages which is standard for a children's book. The illustrations are done in watercolor and acrylic. In The Wild Animal Alphabet, several things are taught: * The alphabet * Use of familiar words * New words * Reading * Good artistic composition * Color usage * Good artistic technique * Appreciation for animals in their habitat * Honesty * The justice system * Settling a dispute in a peaceful way
