Alphabet Dot to Dot N. V. De Ballon,de Ballon N V,2004-09 In these simple and cute pictures, children don't follow the numbers to connect the dots; they follow letters instead. It's easy, it's instructive, and it's enjoyable to watch a bunny with a kite, a child on a life-size toy train, and a zebra on a wagon come into view; and when it's done, youngsters can color in the entire picture however they please.

Letters Every letter is a new territory for your child. The first step is to get to know the letter and practice through the correct pen guidance by simply tracing it. This is followed by a word containing the letter you have just learned. So your child learns to put the letter in a word. Encourage your child to read the word aloud to directly practice the corresponding sound. Finally, your child learns to write the letter freely and independently. Numbers. To understand the meaning of numbers, your child starts counting picture elements. Then, just as with letters, he or she will have to trace the numbers. As soon as they become more confident, free writing follows the number you have just learned, with guidelines ensuring that the number is placed at the correct height.
