Learning Cursive Writing with Fun Animal Names Melanie Bremner,2018-12-19 Cursive writing can often be challenging for children when they first get started. With this fun workbook, your student can challenge himself/herself to see how many animal names they know and then learn how to write and spell them. 63 pages with animals you can also color in for an extra activity once the writing practice has been completed for each page. This book will be sure to keep your student engages and learning in a fun interactive format. No more whining about having to do homework, your child should be looking forward to completing another page of this book even if they did just come home from their day school. Why don't you challenge your child? I bet there are animal names in here that you don't even know. See how fun it can be to learn something new. I enjoyed creating this book. After spending years trying to keep my learning disabled son focused on what was needed for him to learn each day, I was exhausted. Then I decided to create one of these animal name workbooks for him and sat down with him to talk about the animal of the day. It was fun. And my son stayed engaged. So, I decided to make some more. I know there are other children out there who are a little self-conscious of their setbacks and would be happy to have a fun workbook to explore.

Principal 2.0 Matthew Militello,Jennifer Friend,2013-03-01 This volume of essays provides insights into educational technology from a diverse set of vantage points. Each chapter provides school leaders with both conceptual insights and practical guides. Moreover, the authors of these insights and guides are eclectic including: current K-12 school educators and students, professors and graduate students of educational technology and educational leadership, and technology industry leaders. Our goal was to provide a thoughtful and thought-provoking set of essays that propels your own work in the world of educational technology forward. The audience for this book includes teachers, school and district leaders, educational technologists, educational policymakers, and higher education faculty. Chapters demonstrate a number of specific uses of advanced technologies in schools, in educational leadership, and in leadership preparatory programs. Chapters are accompanied by screen-captured images and links to multimedia examples that are accessible to readers via the Internet, including digital artifacts of leadership and learning that will guide readers to implementation in diverse educational settings.

Infusing Vocabulary Into the Reading-Writing Workshop Amy Benjamin,2017-01-12 Learn how to make vocabulary instruction more effective by making better use of mini-lessons and word study time to achieve durable learning about words and how they work. In this essential new book, literacy expert Amy Benjamin presents her 4E model (Exposure, Exploration, Engagement, Energy) for teaching vocabulary so that students gain deep understanding, improving their overall language and literacy skills. Benjamin guides you through bringing these 4Es to life in your K-8 reading-writing workshop. -Exposure: Enrich your teacher talk with sophisticated words and phrases to facilitate natural language acquisition and application of new words. -Exploration: Promote consistent vocabulary growth with a multifaceted instructional approach that incorporates etymology, word associations, word families, spelling, and morphology. -Engagement: Build students' confidence by encouraging meaningful use of new words, both in and out of the classroom. -Energy: Enliven your workshop and increase participation with a variety of word games, puzzles, projects, and cooperative learning activities. Each chapter provides practical examples and scenarios to help you apply the model to your own classroom. The appendices include a variety of strategies for organizing reading-writing workshops, a thorough introduction to academic word lists and their role in vocabulary instruction, and an analysis of forty Latin and Greek word roots for mini-lessons.
