Animals Around the World Linda Clarke, 2019-11-18 I have created this book for the entertainment of my sweet grandson. Cason has Marfan Syndrome and is not like the average child. He is limited to the things he can do and is extra tall and thin for his age. Just as the animals in this book are different and unique, so is my grandson. He is extra ordinary and unique. Even though Cason can't participate in sports like other children, he makes up for it in other areas. Cason is smart and he enjoys playing board games with us. He has a great sense of humor and makes us laugh. I hope this book will bring entertainment to my sweet young boy as he gets to know each of these amazing animals. Maybe he can figure out which animal he has the most in common with?
