The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Art in Global Asia Menene Gras, Jonathan Harris, Bashir Makhoul, 2022-12-30 This substantial collection of newly commissioned essays presents an ambitious, entertaining, and accessible guide to developments in Asian art over the past 20 years of the epoch of globalization. The term 'global Asia' signals the genesis and evolution of contemporary art within the context of global economic, social, political, and intellectual change related to the end of the Cold War, decolonization, the emergence of postcolonial societies and cultures, and the rise of a global contemporary art world. In the handbook its editors establish, in an extended introductory section and in four section introductions, the theoretical, geographical, and historical parameters within which the contemporary visual arts of 'global Asia' may be described, analyzed, and evaluated. The collected chapters provide a diverse, multiauthored, heterogeneous, and genuinely plural account of art and its contexts. The democratic and inclusive character of globalization is reflected and produced within this anthology, which includes different styles of writing as well as varieties of analytic and thematic focus. The anthology will appeal to both scholars and students in art history, art practice, curation, contemporary art, fine art, cultural studies, and globalization studies.

Art/33/Basel Samuel Keller, Art Basel, 2002 The 2002 Basel art fair presented works of over 1000 modern and contemporary artists from around the world from 268 galleries.

Vitamin P3: New Perspectives in Painting Phaidon Editors, 2019-09-11 The indispensable guide to the most exciting painters of recent years, chosen by leading arts professionals - now in paperback Despite its long history, painting continues to evolve and excite, with new generations taking it in unexpected directions. A central pillar of artistic practice, painting also has enduring appeal for collectors and still dominates the art market. Vitamin P3 takes the conversation forward, spotlighting more than 100 outstanding artists who are pushing the boundaries of the medium of paint. In its new paperback format, it's sure to inspire a wider-than-ever audience.

The Global Contemporary Art World Jonathan Harris, 2017-10-02 The final installment in the critically-acclaimed trilogy on globalization and art explores the growing dominance of Asian centers of art This book takes readers on a fascinating journey around five Asian centers of contemporary art and its myriad institutions, agents, forms, materials, and languages, while posing vital questions about the political economy of culture and the power of visual art in a multi-polar world. He analyzes the financial powerhouse of Art Basel Hong Kong, new media art in South Korea, the place of the Kochi Biennale within contemporary art in India, transnational art and art education in China, and the geo-politics of art patronage in Palestine, and he develops a highly original synthesis of theoretical perspectives and empirical research. Drawing on detailed case studies and personal insights gained from his extensive experience of the contemporary art scene in Asia, Professor Harris examines the evolving relationship between the western centers of art practice, collection, and validation and the emerging “peripheries” of Asian Tiger societies with burgeoning art centers. And he arrives at the somewhat controversial conclusion that dominance of the art world is rapidly slipping away from Europe and North America. The Global Contemporary Art World is essential reading for undergraduates and postgraduate students in modern and contemporary art, art history, art theory and criticism, cultural studies, the sociology of culture, and globalization studies. It is also a vital resource for research students, academics, and professionals in the art world.

Publisher's description.

When Art Meets Money Franz Schultheis, Stephan Egger, Erwin Single, Thomas Mazzurana, 2015 The Art Basel is more than just a fair in the commercial sense of the word, more than a temporally and spatially concentrated gathering of dealers offering their goods for sale to interested buyers. It is at the same time the site of a display of holy goods in the presence of thousands and thousands of believers, a pilgrim's goal for the ritualized adoration of modern and contemporary art. It is also, and for precisely this reason, the decisive witness of the upheaval marking a radical change in that relationship between art and money - with all the consequences, not least for the evaluation of what is to be regarded as genuine art. The present study, the result of several years of sociological field work, attempts to draw a picture of this change as perceived by the participants, the organizers of the fair, the gallerists, collectors, curators, art consultants and artists, as a central problem of the contemporary art scene. The authors, members of a research group of the University of St. Gallen, present in When Art meets Money a detailed study of the practice of the contemporary picture market, drawing upon Pierre Bourdieu's influential sociology of art.

The Ultimate Obama Survival Guide Wayne Root, 2013-04-15 Argues that the President's economic policy will lead the country to economic ruin and outlines a plan for monetary success and avoiding a bad financial fate during the crisis.

ART 31 BASEL Basel Art Staff, 2000-06 Art Basel is considered the world's leading fair for modern and contemporary art. The fair catalogue presents the most comprehensive overview of offerings on the international art market as well as information about this important annual art world event. An indispensable reference and a popular collector's item for art lovers, the catalogue includes over 600 illustrations, detailed information on the 250 leading galleries in Europe, North and South America, Asia, and Australia, an index of 1,000 prominent artists and the galleries representing them, an index of art publications from all over the world, and essays on the development of art and the art market by important authors such as Harald Szeemann and Christian von Faber-Castell. The dates for this year's fair are June 21-26, 2000. This is an essential reference for all serious art professionals and collectors.

Unlimited Art Basel Gianni Jetzer, 2017-07 The special sector of Art Basel, Unlimited, has been taking place under the auspices of the world's most important art fair since 2000. The concept of this large, museum-like exhibition within an art fair is unique and popular with both collectors and visitors. Every year, between 70 and 90 artists are invited to this exceptional platform, which defies limitations and experiments with new forms of presentation. Oversized works are shown to their best effect in the gigantic, 17,000 square-meter hall. Like its predecessor, the current installment of Unlimited promises to attract considerable attention. It is a dynamic presentation of unique contemporary works that does not understand itself as a museum, which orders and classifies. The classic catalogue documents and acts as a guide to the spectacle.
