Emerging Writers Merlene Purkiss, 2010-08 Emerging Writers was designed for students of writing who are willing to begin with the basics and ultimately graduate to expanding the writing process. The book is filled with invaluable examples and exercises to help develop all the essential skills introduced. In addition, there is a lesson review at the end of most every chapter, so bonus reinforcement is provided throughout the book. One of the greatest things about the book is that it is so simple and well structured that seasoned and even novice writers can use it independently. It is also adaptable, being used primarily as a developmental writing textbook for college-level composition courses, but it can be used for both personal and professional purposes.

Miss Webster and Chérif Patricia Duncker, 2011-08-01 Elizabeth Webster is a spinster pushing seventy. Forced out of her teaching job, she unleashes her sharp tongue and dogmatic opinions on everyone in the English village of Little Blessington. Then, one night, she grinds to a dead halt. To recover from this illness, she travels to North Africa where she has a brush with terrorism - not that she cares about politics. Three weeks after Miss Webster has returned home her doorbell rings. There stands a beautiful young Arab man carrying a large suitcase. Who is he, why is he there and what does he want?

"Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 " Alla Myzelev, 2017-07-05 Toronto - the largest and one of the most multicultural cities in Canada - boasts an equally interesting and diverse architectural heritage. Architecture, Design and Craft in Toronto 1900-1940 tells a story of the significant changes in domestic life in the first 40 years of the twentieth century. Adopting a multidisciplinary approach to studies of residential spaces, the author examines how questions of modernity and modern living influenced not only architectural designs but also interior furnishings, modes of transportation and ways to spend leisure time. The book discusses several case studies, some of which are known both locally and internationally (for example Casa Loma), while others such as Guild of All Arts or Sherwood have been virtually unstudied by historians of visual culture. The overall goal of the book is to put Toronto on the map of scholars of urban design and architecture and to uncover previously unknown histories of design, craft and domesticity in Toronto. This study will be of interest not only to the academic community (namely architects, designers, craftspeople and scholars of these disciplines, along with social historians), but also the general public interested in local history and/or visual culture.

The Orchid Robert Grant, 2019-12-19 The Orchid by Robert Grant is a story that has inspired readers for over a century. A headstrong young woman marries for money and divorces for love. She then sells her infant daughter back to her former husband to secure a two million dollar fortune. Romance and the search for your other half are at the core of this tale that shows money can't buy happiness and love is always worth the risk of a new life.
