In The Pool 池田秀三,Hideo Okuda,2006-05 Meet Dr. Ichiro Irabu. In today's Japan, a traditional land beset by modern pressures and confusion, image-conscious people just can't be seen going to a therapist. Instead they visit doctors of neurology like Dr. Irabu. What makes the good doctor unique is his penchant for sharing his patients' stress-related ailments, aiding and abetting their compulsions .. and making them much worse before they get better. In this sardonic collection by Hideo Okuda, we meet the many faces of dysfunction in modern Japan. In In the Pool, a magazine editor's midlife crisis sends him deep into an addiction to swimming that threatens his job and his marriage. Making a Stand focuses on a man who, recently left by his wife, suffers a constant, painful, and embarrassing erection. In Trade Show Model a pretty young woman believes every man she sees on the street is a stalker. In Cell, a high-school student addicted to his cell phone cannot stop text-messaging the friends he so desperately wants. Double Check tells of a journalist afraid to leave home, for fear his house will burn down while he's gone. How does Dr. Irabu do it? No, no, no. I don't do any of that fancy-pants sort of thing ... Some counselor listening to a patient's worries, then giving him wise words of encouragement. Perfectly useless. His approach seems to work.--BOOK JACKET.

And while each of these three statements are true, not one of them is the truth. Dive deeper with bestselling author Andy Andrews as he shares his unique philosophy regarding foundational thinking. Through his unique and captivating storytelling, Andy helps you search for the reality that lies beyond the boundaries established in the name of “best practices,” “industry standards,” or “the way things are done.” For it's at the bottom of the pool that you discover a pathway to extraordinary results that most people in your position do not even know are possible.
