It includes simple explanations of how to set up & take each photo. Me Ra Koh's follow-up to her bestselling Your Baby in Pictures is the antidote to digital snapshot overload, inviting parents to slow down, stop taking thousands of so-so photos that languish on the computer and instead focus on capturing singular, more powerful moments that truly tell the story of their child's development from age 1 to 10. Through 40 easy photo recipes - all organised by age, explained in simple steps and paired with adorable photo examples - Me Ra not only helps parents take better photos, but inspires them to discover photography as a way to connect with, cherish and celebrate their children. Each photo recipe includes a simple explanation of how to set up and take the photo - with specific camera settings for both point-and-shoots and DSLRS, along with an inspiring photo example taken either by Me RA or one of the many amateur photographer mums who have taken her workshops.

Slap Tubes and Other Plosive Aerophones Bart Hopkin, Philip Dadson, 2007 They can be simple to make, yet they are fully musical and they sound great. This is the category of musical instruments known as plosive aerophones. The category includes the end-struck tubes sometimes called slap tubes, as well as many other instrument types. They're good for kids, requiring only modest tools and skills and having real educational value. For others, young or old, they provide one of the most rewarding instrument-making projects you're likely to find. At the same time, slap tubes and their kin have been central to the performances of serious, top-notch musical groups like Blue Man Group, UAKTE, Urban Strawberry Lunch and From Scratch. This book tells you everything you need to know to make them, with ready-to-build designs as well as the information you need to design your own.--Publisher.
