Learn to Play in 5 Minutes a Day Zoe Madewell,2021-06-10 Studies show that learning to play an instrument is proven to enhance a child's cognitive development and IQ. Early music lessons have now been proven to increase brain fiber and it is useful in treating children with ADHD and autism. Starting your child with a musical instrument at a young age-yes, as young as 3!-opens their world up to so many possibilities. Will they become little Bachs and Beethovens? Possibly. But remember, Bach and Beethoven didn't start out fully formed. It takes learning and practice. Here's what Zoë Madewell says about practice: We don't practice to play a piece perfectly. We practice to find peace. We practice to play our purpose. And that is the gift you can give your child. But how do you keep your child interested in learning and practicing. How do you as a caring parent navigate the world of lessons and practice and recitals, choosing instruments? Zoë Madewell has been teaching music to both young and old. In this book, she hands you 25 years of experience in how to avoid the pitched battles over practicing, how to help your child persevere, and to free your child to become inspired by music. You will learn: Which instrument is the best for your child to start on How to avoid having your child become one of the QB1Ys (Quit Before 1 Year) How to keep your child from becoming a Practice Terrorist When and how to reward your child: Pay to Play To praise the good stuff, then shut up: It's all good stuff. You'll also find these tips work in many other parenting situations, whether it is learning how to win a negotiation with your child, inspiring them to learn a new language, teaching them how to honor their commitments. The benefits of musical training are well documented: children who study music score an average of 7 points higher in IQ, test a full academic year higher, have better focus and cognitive development, and best of all, increased self-confidence. But it's not just about giving your child a head start in life. You are giving them the gift of music, a lifelong passion that will enhance and enrich their lives-and yours. Super Easy Keyboard for Kids. Learn How to Transpose: Learn to Play 22 Simple Songs in Different Keys Helen Winter, This book is for kids or adults who are absolute beginners in music. We tried to write it as simply as possible. We use an “easy-to-play” visual aid so any beginner can play music quickly. Neither kids nor their parents have to read sheet music or have a musical background. No previous knowledge is necessary. Every song has a large and simple, letter-coded visual, along with traditional sheet music. The instruction is designed so that children begin with simple circles and gradually advance to reading notes using sheet music. We try to make this transition as easy as a game, where children advance to higher levels themselves. There is a total of 22 songs and 2 options to help children to begin to play right away. PLAYING BY LETTER CIRCLE PLAY WITH THE MUSICAL STAFF The player can first follow the circles and then repeat with the classic note symbols and staff. The helpful letters are always above the notes. There are 3 parts in this book. They are equal to 3 levels. Level 1. Songs that are played in one octave. All songs here appear twice: once written with circles and the next time with classic music notes. This will help kids remember the staff notes. For example: Mary Had a Little Lamb - Ver 1 - CIRCLES Mary Had a Little Lamb - Ver 1 - NOTES Level 2 In this part, you will find one version with both circles and notes and a more advanced version of the song with notes and musical notation. For example: Hot Cross Buns - Version 1 - CIRCLES Hot Cross Buns - Version 1 - NOTES Hot Cross Buns - Version 2 - NOTES (Here the player will play songs in a different key and learn how to transpose.) Generally, the version of the song written with sheet music is a little bit more complex than a letter-coded version. Such versions already have music notations such as rests or beams, etc. You can find an illustrated explanation of the notation at the end of this book. Level 3 Here, the first two songs are versions of the same melody (different combinations of notes) written with circles and notes. This is important so that the beginner can see how the same melody can be played in different keys. First of all, this book is addressed to newcomers to any keyboard instrument (such as Piano or Synthesizer). We offer 22 one-hand piano songs. Also, it is a perfect self-training guide for children and beginner adults to mastering the challenges of percussion instruments such as xylophone, glockenspiel, melodica, or recorder. Additionally, you find funny riddles with engaging activities to teach musical notes and symbols. Table of contents Level 1 Mary Had a Little Lamb Ode to Joy The Whills on the Bus Jolly Old Saint Nicholas Ten Little Fingers London Bridge Do You Know the Muffin Man? we Wish You a Merry Christmas The First Noel Brahms Lullaby Row Row Your Boat Itsy Bitsy Spider Silent Night Oh Susannah Level 2 Hot Cross Buns Are You Sleeping?
