Think, and Be Free Grant Emerson Miller,2008-12 In Think and Be Free, Grant Miller takes you on a journey through his life as a child growing up in a plain church, and his quest for truth concerning what God has done for the human family. He was in for a surprise, and so are you as you also discover God is not angry with anyone. Knowing this simple, yet powerful and life-changing truth, you will begin to change your view of yourself and others which results in less pain, greater confidence, and better relationships. Because, you will continue to treat people as you do, as long as you think of them as you have. Grant Miller lives in North Manchester, IN with his wife Darla, and kids, Wynn, Blaine, Lana, and Thad. His hobby has always been a persistent quest to learn all there is to understand about life, the universe we live in, and the Truth that is alive in every human. He has had a special interest in people, how they relate with each other, and specifically the pain and emptiness people experience that is partly a result of being human, partly due to the way one was made to feel as a child, and often times, the lies of religion. The cap sheaf of his interests, being the love and wonderful destiny that God has for every person due to the sacrifice and resurrection of His son, Christ Jesus.
