Financial Freedom Grant Sabatier,2020-04-07 The International Bestseller New York Public Library's Top 10 Think Thrifty Reads of 2023 This book blew my mind. More importantly, it made financial independence seem achievable. I read Financial Freedom three times, cover-to-cover. —Lifehacker Money is unlimited. Time is not. Become financially independent as fast as possible. In 2010, 24-year old Grant Sabatier woke up to find he had $2.26 in his bank account. Five years later, he had a net worth of over $1.25 million, and CNBC began calling him the Millennial Millionaire. By age 30, he had reached financial independence. Along the way he uncovered that most of the accepted wisdom about money, work, and retirement is either incorrect, incomplete, or so old-school it's obsolete. Financial Freedom is a step-by-step path to make more money in less time, so you have more time for the things you love. It challenges the accepted narrative of spending decades working a traditional 9 to 5 job, pinching pennies, and finally earning the right to retirement at age 65, and instead offers readers an alternative: forget everything you've ever learned about money so that you can actually live the life you want. Sabatier offers surprising, counter-intuitive advice on topics such as how to: * Create profitable side hustles that you can turn into passive income streams or full-time businesses * Save money without giving up what makes you happy * Negotiate more out of your employer than you thought possible * Travel the world for less * Live for free--or better yet, make money on your living situation * Create a simple, money-making portfolio that only needs minor adjustments * Think creatively--there are so many ways to make money, but we don't see them. But most importantly, Sabatier highlights that, while one's ability to make money is limitless, one's time is not. There's also a limit to how much you can save, but not to how much money you can make. No one should spend precious years working at a job they dislike or worrying about how to make ends meet. Perhaps the biggest surprise: You need less money to retire at age 30 than you do at age 65. Financial Freedom is not merely a laundry list of advice to follow to get rich quick--it's a practical roadmap to living life on one's own terms, as soon as possible.

Couponing Book Organizer Lawrence Westfall,2019-07-14 Do you like to save money and get great prices on items you use daily? Of course you do. Who wouldn't? Couponing has become increasingly popular as more people are looking for ways to save money. I love couponing - clipping coupons, going shopping, getting great deals and saving money. I really, really love when stores offer double or triple coupons - then, I usually get the items for free. And, if the product is worth it, I even go back and buy an additional Sunday newspaper just to get the inserts and I also ask my neighbors if they have coupons they aren't going to use. This is especially true for those products that are for males mainly - since I'm a guy. I swap the coupons that I have no use for and the ladies in my neighborhood do the same. Some stores even have coupon exchanges set up when you first enter the store. Grab some of the ones you use and drop off ones you don't want. In addition to the coupon clipping process, use digital couponing resources including apps, smartphones and other technology. Save money and learn about the benefits of couponing and how to effectively use coupons to get the best return on your investment of time and money. Helpful Couponing Tips: Use a binder, dividers, and plastic baseball card holders. Arrange coupons according to categories such as frozen foods, canned goods and baby products. Download your grocery store's layout and organize the coupons by each aisle. Stock up on items frequently used during certain times of the year. Money Saving Tips: Make a grocery list. Plan meals ahead of time and try to match up coupons accordingly. Look for hidden coupons, including inside boxes or ones that can be combined when purchasing another item. Out of state newspapers often have coupons that are better values - ask friends and family to send coupon inserts. Download coupons from a number of websites like couponmom.com or afrugalchick.com.
