Bible in Pocket, Gun in Hand Ross Phares,1964-01-01 'The Story of Frontier Religion' could have been told in a great many ways, many of them dull. Here, however, interpretative matter has been kept to a minimum and source material selected with an unerring sense of humor. . . . There are chapters on the styles of preaching and of praying, the phenomena of revivalism, the church as a disciplinary force, frauds and 'bad men' who preached, scoffers and trouble-makers, the fiercely jocular competition among the various sects, and the hard lot of circuit ministers.--Virginia Kirkus' Bulletin This is an admirable piece of research, unpedantic but authentic, packed with entertaining anecdotes (some of them hilarious) based on obscure pastoral autobiographies, the diaries of early missionaries, the minutes of church court trials, and other curious source materials. . . . A unique book.--Chicago Sunday Tribune Ross Phares has written widely for magazines and is the author of several books.

Bible Verses in My Pocket Micah Stohlmann,2011-05-25 In the midst of the busyness of life, how is it possible to remember everything that a person has to do? What are the most important things that need to be done each day? This book provides wisdom for relevant issues facing young adults by balancing the author's personal life stories, Bible verses, the stories of others, facts, songs, and hymns. The book demonstrates the blessings and importance of being in God's Word and relying on the Holy Spirit for guidance throughout a believer's whole life. Daily meditation on God's Word allows Christians to be strengthened by God throughout the day and provides guidance, wisdom, comfort, hope, and joy. All proceeds from the book are going to support the work of two great non-profit organizations. One non-profit organization, The Lutheran Education Foundation of Minnesota, provides financial assistance to low-income families that want to send their children to Christian schools. The second non-profit organization, Starfish Ministries, supports an ELL(English Language Learners) program for families that have recently immigrated to the United States from Burma.
