No More Faking Fine Esther Fleece Allen, 2017-01-10 Scripture reveals a God who meets us where we are, not where we pretend to be. No More Faking Fine is your invitation to get honest with God through the life-giving language of lament. If you've ever been given empty clichés during challenging times, you know how painful it is to be misunderstood by well-meaning people. When life hurts, we often feel pressure--from others and ourselves--to keep it together, suck it up, or pray it away. But Scripture reveals a God who lovingly invites us to give honest voice to our emotions when life hits hard. For most of her life, Esther Fleece Allen believed she could bypass the painful emotions of her broken past by shutting them down altogether. She was known as an achiever and an overcomer on the fast track to success. But in silencing her pain, she robbed herself of the opportunity to be healed. Maybe you've done the same. Esther's journey into healing began when she discovered that God has given us a real-world way to deal with raw emotions and an alternative to the coping mechanisms that end up causing more pain. It's called lament--the gut-level, honest prayer that God never ignores, never silences, and never wastes. No More Faking Fine is your permission to lament, taking you on a journey down the unexpected pathway to true intimacy with God. Drawing from careful biblical study and hard-won insight, Esther reveals how to use God's own language to come closer to him as he leads us through our pain to the light on the other side, teaching you that: We are robbing ourselves of a divine mystery and a divine intimacy when we pretend to have it all together God does not expect us to be perfect; instead, he meets us where we are There is hope beyond your heartache, disappointment, and grief Like Esther, you'll soon find that when one person stops faking fine, it gives everyone else permission to do the same.

Sonshine for the Soul Debbie Compton, 2018-11-22 This is a collection of inspiring quotes from religious leaders, singers, actors, and others. If you're needing a quote for a speech, feeling a little down, or just looking for a light-hearted quick read, this is the book for you. My Dad was a country preacher and my mom was the ever-supportive pastor's wife. Mom was volunteered, (meaning she did not volunteer herself,) to make our church bulletins for a while. These were the days of the typewriter, no spell-check, not even a proof reader, and very little time. The results were sometimes hilarious and sometimes embarrassing to my poor mother. Some are shared in this book, not to make fun of my sweet mom in any way, but to brighten your day. Laughter, after all, is the best medicine! I hope you decide to add some Sonshine to your day!
