Diccionario vasco-español-francés Resurrección María de Azkue,1905

Manuel Azaña Santos Juliá,1990 Vilipendiado hasta el extremo por sus adversarios y admirado, mas que querido, por sus correligionarios, la personalidad y la obra de Manuel Azana (1880-1940) --oscura, frustrada, difícil, para unos; abierta, candida, entranable, para otros ha sido objeto de muy diversos juicios de valor basados en no pocas ocasiones sobre un conocimiento parcial y hasta sobre la evidente ignorancia de lo que verdaderamente dijo e hizo. En este libro se pretende recomponer y analizar, en su acontecer histórico y con escrupuloso respeto a la cronología, la palabra y la acción política de aquel señor republicano que fue Manuel Azana en la revolución antimonárquica, en el poder y en la oposición.

Courtroom Interpreting Marianne Mason,2008-09-15 In Courtroom Interpreting, Marianne Mason offers a new perspective in the study of courtroom interpreting through the exploration of cognitive and linguistic barriers that court interpreters face everyday and ultimately result in an interpreter's deviation from original linguistic content. The quality of an interpreter's rendition plays a key role in how well a non-English speaking defendant's legal rights are served. Interpreters are expected to provide a faithful rendition of all semantic, syntactic, and pragmatic content regardless of how difficult the task may be at a cognitive level. From a legal perspective this expectation may be sound as it disregards the cost associated with the interpreter having to account for a great deal of linguistic content. Mason proposes that if the quality of interpreters' renditions is to improve and the rights of non-English speaking minorities is to be better served the issue of cognitive overload needs to be addressed more effectively by the court interpreting community.

I wish someday Dad and Bandit would pull up in front in the rig ... Dad would yell out of the cab, Come on, Leigh. Hop in and I'll give you a lift to school. Leigh Botts has been author Boyd Henshaw's number one fan ever since he was in second grade. Now in sixth grade, Leigh lives with his mother and is the new kid at school. He's lonely, troubled by the absence of his father, a cross-country trucker, and angry because a mysterious thief steals from his lunchbag. Then Leigh's teacher assigns a letter-writing project. Naturally Leigh chooses to write to Mr. Henshaw, whose surprising answer changes Leigh's life.
