

Bone Genius

James Hinton

Bones Kate Lennard, 2007 Young Genius tells about the amazing hard things under your skin called your bones.

Deconstructing Genius Howard Burton, 2020-10-01 This book is based on an in-depth filmed conversation between Howard Burton and intellectual historian Darrin McMahon, Dartmouth College. The word “genius” evokes great figures like Einstein, Leonardo Da Vinci, and Mozart but what quintessential quality unites these individuals? Can we measure it? Can we create it? This thoughtful conversation explores Darrin’s research on the evolution of genius from Plato to Einstein (which led him to write the book Divine Fury: A History of Genius) in an effort to illuminate what our evolving genius mythology reveals about the rest of us. This carefully-edited book includes an introduction, Something to Declare, and questions for discussion at the end of each chapter: I. Opening Up Sightlines - The genius of intellectual history II. The Equality Paradox - Some more equal than others? III. Towards The Dark Side - The genius as rule-breaker IV. Romantic Genius - Reinvented, suffering and zealous V. Nature vs. Nurture - A threat to equality? VI. Evil Genius - The other side of the coin VII. Geniuses Everywhere - The superhuman condition? VIII. The Future of Genius - Next steps IX. Gradually Expanding - Genius as cultural phenomenon X. The Science of Genius - Brainology and other tales About Ideas Roadshow Conversations: This book is part of an expanding series of 100+ Ideas Roadshow conversations, each one presenting a wealth of candid insights from a leading expert through a focused yet informal setting to give non-specialists a uniquely accessible window into frontline research and scholarship that wouldn't otherwise be encountered through standard lectures and textbooks. Autobiography of a Genius Jacob Levy Moreno,2019-02-16

J.L. Moreno writes: Being a genius does not consist only of having ideas. This is essential, but is a far later phase of genius. Being a genius starts with a feeling of being in contact with the whole universe, a feeling of totality, being fed by it free of charge and feeding it gratefully in return. In this book, the presentation of his life, vision, and life's work, Moreno gives countless portals for the opening of contact with the whole universe, to a feeling of totality. This totality is what motivated him, and has also motivated the editor for much of his life. The direct felt experience of this totality is at the center of religious, existential, and spiritual traditions, and in this book we have an uncloaked method for the same enlightenment process. The totality and wholeness of life can be found in the enactment of Moreno's method. What can be greater than to really live this and to give it to others?
