Many are humorous and will tickle the funny bone, while others will pull and tug at the heart. The reader will be drawn in and know they are not alone as they will be able to relate to some or most of the stories.

Orange Sunshine Nicholas Schou,2011-12-06 Few stories in the annals of American counterculture are as intriguing or dramatic as that of the Brotherhood of Eternal Love. Dubbed the Hippie Mafia, the Brotherhood began in the mid-1960s as a small band of peace-loving, adventure-seeking surfers in Southern California. After discovering LSD, they took to Timothy Leary's mantra of Turn on, tune in, and drop out and resolved to make that vision a reality by becoming the biggest group of acid dealers and hashish smugglers in the nation, and literally providing the fuel for the psychedelic revolution in the process. Just days after California became the first state in the union to ban LSD, the Brotherhood formed a legally registered church in its headquarters at Mystic Arts World on Pacific Coast Highway in Laguna Beach, where they sold blankets and other countercultural paraphernalia retrieved through surfing safaris and road trips to exotic locales in Asia and South America. Before long, they also began to sell Afghan hashish, Hawaiian pot (the storied Maui Wowie), and eventually Colombian cocaine, much of which the Brotherhood smuggled to California in secret compartments inside surfboards and Volkswagen minibuses driven across the border. They also befriended Leary himself, enlisting him in the goal of buying a tropical island where they could install the former Harvard philosophy professor and acid prophet as the high priest of an experimental utopia. The Brotherhood's most legendary contribution to the drug scene was homemade: Orange Sunshine, the group's nickname for their trademark orange-colored acid tablet that happened to produce an especially powerful trip. Brotherhood foot soldiers passed out handfuls of the tablets to communes, at Grateful Dead concerts, and at love-ins up and down the coast of California and beyond. The Hell's Angels, Charles Mason and his followers, and the unruly crowd at the infamous Altamont music festival all tripped out on this acid. Jimi Hendrix even appeared in a film starring Brotherhood members and performed a private show for the fugitive band of outlaws on the slope of a Hawaiian volcano. Journalist Nicholas Schou takes us deep inside the Brotherhood, combining exclusive interviews with both the group's surviving members as well as the cops who chased them. A wide-sweeping narrative of sex, drugs, and rock 'n' roll (and more drugs) that runs from Laguna Beach to Maui to Afghanistan, Orange Sunshine explores how America moved from the era of peace and free love into a darker time of hard drugs and paranoia.

Blow Dry This! Hilda Villaverde,2007-10 Everyone's life is a story! From the time we are born until we pass away, our life story is gathered from experiences, people, circumstances, and choices. We tell our stories, we listen to others tell theirs, we make them up and exaggerate them, and, many times, we become the story instead of who we really are. It's a well-known fact that one of the best times to tell and listen to stories is while having your hair done. Blow Dry This! Stories From Behind the Chair is a captivating assortment of people's stories collected from a, not so ordinary, hair salon. They are warm and tender, outrageous and hilarious, but mostly, the stories reveal the greatest desire of all people--the need for authentic happiness.

Make a Six Figure Income Doing Hair Alan Daniels,2012-10-01 If you are a hairdresser who is currently in or entering the hair industry or know someone who is, then you need this book. The vast number of working hairdressers make less than $30,000 a year. Without an experienced mentor teaching a stylist what to do, it is very difficult to beat the odds and earn over $100,000 a year in income in the beauty business. This book is that mentor! Learn exactly what to do and when to do it as it relates to building and maintaining a large and lucrative clientele base. In short, this book will teach you in detail how to make a lot of money in the hair industry while the vast majority of hairstylists do not. Here is a chapter list- Is this the industry for me? * Internship-Where should I work? * The critical consultation * Commission or rental * Fashion shows * The bi-yearly builder * Competition * Hair care maintenance and retail product sales * Up selling services * The killer shampoo * The power of humor * The chameleon effect * The 100% total satisfaction guarantee * The image game * Station location * Pre-Booking appointments * Tracking your business * Double Booking * Professionalism * The assistant advantage * Department store promotions * Professional distance * Lunch is for whimps * Complete make-over demonstrations * Free services * Business cards * Before and after * The barter system * Scouting for models * Promotions with church groups * Networking in the salon * Clientele date base * Your receptionist * Accounting for success * Do I open my own salon? * Exit plan. This book will teach you how to: * Start, grow, and maintain, a large and lucrative hair clientele * Seperate yourself from the crowd in the hair business * Create a financially independent lifestyle for yourself in the hair industry * Make a lot of money working in a hair salon * Make the hair industry work for you * Finally be successful as a hair stylist You will learn how successful people in the hair industry have achieved that status and how you can do it too. Most importantly, you will learn that making a lot of money in the hair industry has suprisingly little to do with physically doing hair. All of this will be taught from the perspective of a normal guy from Los Angeles California who was lucky enough to be put under the wing of a brilliant man, not through some corporate perspective. Alan Daniels has trained hundreds stylists over the years and many of them have gone on to make over $100,000 incomes. You can do it too!

A Freudian Slip Is When You Say One Thing but Mean Your Mother Gary Blake,2012-05-01 Everyone delights in wordplay! When there's a sale on tennis balls, it's first come, first serve. Condoms should be used on every conceivable occasion. Why does the Pope travel so much? Because he's a roamin' Catholic. What is purple and 5,000 miles long? The Grape Wall of China! O-pun the door to 1,001 goodies that will have you howling or groaning, but certainly—like the surgery patient—in stitches.
