Michelina T. Foster

"I Do" in Las Vegas Michelina T.

Foster, 2012-12-12 This is a delightful and entertaining journal of experiences, impressions and memories of a Las Vegas Wedding Chapel minister who has performed over 12,000 weddings on The Strip and in Casino Wedding Chapels, in and around Las Vegas, Nevada - billed as The Wedding Capital of the World. In this book, Bishop Michelina presents the engaging atmosphere found in this Nevada City which features casinos, a few trade secrets of the wedding industry, and the unusual couples, requests and events occurring during the ceremonies: including Chapel weddings, Elvis weddings, helicopter and hot air balloon weddings, and tours of the Grand Canyon, Red Rock, Valley of Fire. All these represent part of the lure and fascination a Las Vegas destination holds. Sample wedding ceremonies and pictures complete the chapters - creatively outlined within the words of the Wedding Ceremony itself.

Gender Inequalities in Rural European Communities During 19th and Early 20th Century
Polly Thanailaki, 2018-03-05 This book provides an overview of women's opportunities for schooling, their social activities, and the social biases they faced in rural communities in Greece, Italy and parts of the Balkans during the 19th and early 20th century. It examines such topics as female illiteracy, the efforts of women-protestant missionaries to expand knowledge through Protestantism, the prejudice against education for women, the socio-economic context, the roles women fulfilled, and the structure of the patriarchal family. The book approaches these issues from the perspective of pedagogy and social history. The fundamental questions discussed by the book are: How was female education viewed by the country folk? What was the role of women in the private and the public sphere? How did peasant women respond to the challenges of the 'modern' world? Were they free to express their feelings and ambitions? In what way? Were they happy?

Somalis Abroad , 2017-05-12 Drawing on a wealth of ethnographic detail, Stephanie Bjork offers the first study on the messy role of clan or tribe in the Somali diaspora, and the only study on the subject to include women's perspectives. Somalis Abroad illuminates the ways clan is contested alongside ideas of autonomy and gender equality, challenged by affinities towards others with similar migration experiences, transformed because of geographical separation from family members, and leveraged by individuals for cultural capital. Challenging prevailing views in the field, Bjork argues that clan-informed practices influence everything from asylum decisions to managing money. The practices also become a pattern that structures important relationships via constant--and unwitting--effort.

A History of Chinese Theatre in the 20th Century

I Fu Jin,2020-03-26 The 20th century was a dynamic period for the theatrical arts in China. Booming urban theatres, the interaction between commercial practice and theatre, dramas staged during the War of Resistance against Japan and a healthy dialogue between Western and Eastern theatres all contributed to the momentousness of this period. The four volumes of A History of Chinese Theatre in the 20th Century display the developmental trajectories of Chinese theatre over those hundred years. This volume deals with the development of Chinese theatre from 1900 to 1949, covering the prosperity of Peking Opera, the advent of play and colorful local dramas. The author shows that the modernization of Chinese theatre was subject to both internal factors and influences from the outside world, while modernity and localization are two contradictory but complementary dimensions in any interpretation of Chinese theatre in the 20th century. Scholars and students in the history of the arts, especially the history of Chinese theatre, will find this book to be an essential guide.
