Cata of India J P Ronan,2018-11-27 Upon the unexpected circumstance and before the unrecognizable ploy the most humble can be thrust above the mighty, the poor to gain beyond the wealthy, and the good to place their feet upon the wicked. Here in the tale begins for such a soul. The only child of a commoner enters the worlds of the Far East to meet a most infrequent destiny. The cultures of the Indian Continent are brought to life. Beliefs, taboos, and the rites of various regions of the land are to be tasted.

Cata Hari Karen COPELAND,2020-12-07 Have you ever wondered what your pets get up to when you're away from home? Emma Barrett does because her cat, Smokey, always seems too sleepy for play. What Emma does not know is that Smokey leads a double life: house pet by day and working cat by night. In fact, Smokey works as a spy under the code name Cata Hari. Cata Hari goes undercover at an animal research centre after reports that something fishy is going on. She soon learns that the life of a very talented calf is at risk and sets out to save him. When the mission proves more dangerous than expected, and her own life is on the line, she calls on her best canine friend, Mustafa, and a streetwise mouse named Jocko for help.
