Compensation for Damage in International Investment Arbitration Mikael Ouaniche, Stéphane Prigent, 2022-09-09 This book is the first to combine a legal and an economic approach to the violation of international investment law and the evaluation of their financial consequences. It is intended for arbitrators, lawyers, legal experts and financial experts. It will also be useful for academics who study this issue, which crosses disciplinary lines. The cross-disciplinary approach proposed by Mikael Ouaniche and Stéphane Prigent in this original work reflects the dual nature of the debates that irrigate the practice of State-investor arbitration, through a rigorous analysis of arbitral case law. As

Laurent Jaeger, President of the French Arbitration Committee, who prefaced the book, says: “Lawyers and arbitrators will be able to improve their understanding of economic and financial valuation methods; experts will be able to improve their understanding of the underlying legal mechanisms. [...] It took all the experience and talent of Mikael Ouaniche and Stéphane Prigent to marry law, economics and finance so harmoniously”.

Embracing the Tune of Term: An Emotional Symphony within Ceta Spec Guide

In a world used by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic beauty and mental symphony produced by the published word often disappear into the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Ceta Spec Guide a wonderful fictional treasure brimming with fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological trip, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths with this touching evaluation, we will examine the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
