A Girl Named Candy Louis Arnold,1995 During the 1937 Ohio River flood, 12 year old Candy Mays' house washed away, and her stepmother deserted her. The next morning she stood alone, weeping and watching debris floating down the swollen river. She soon saw a house floating past with 14 year old Ralph Roberts on top of it. She went after him in a boat and managed to rescue him. He too was alone in the world, so they decided to look after each other. People wanted to send them off to separate orphan homes, but they managed to stay together until they were finally adopted by a prominent family. Candy's fear of being separated from Ralph became a reality after the outbreak of World War II. That separation brought her loneliness and conflict. Her life was also touched by sorrow. Only her strong character and faith brought her through that part of her life, and helped her adjust to unexpected events as they came.

Alcohol Intoxication and Withdrawal - IIIb Milton M. Gross,1977-01-10 He was extremely active in the scientific world of alcoholism as planner and coordinator of three international conferences, as chairman of the section on Biomedical Research of the I.C.A.A., and as a member of a W.H.O. Task Force on Alcoholism. In addition, he was very active in a variety of scientific and service committees in national and local organizations. His interests were by no means purely scientific. He was a serious collector of African and pre-Columbian artifacts and was considered highly knowledgeable in each of these areas. Yet, these extensive commitments did not prevent him from spending a great deal of time with his family and friends, for whom he always showed the greatest consideration. He had a tremendous capacity for living which was manifest in his warmth and good humor. As long-standing friends and collaborators of Milton Gross, we have undertaken to complete the publication of these volumes.

Blessings of the Father - Book Three Mitch Reed,2009-10-20 Blessings of the FatherBook Three is aptly subtitled: The Boys Break Out! Yes, this is still the continuing saga of Las Vegas billionaire, Marc Morgan; Americas leading Restaurateurand his kooky yet endearing family and staff. In this exciting episode however, we identify closely with Marcs sons, Trevor and Taylor as their dream of success as musical performers unfoldsbut will this be their time? We focus too, on the entire Morgan clan as they labor to propel the boys towards breaking out. Yet, like everything else in this family, it seems nothing attached to any Morgan comes easily or without trial, unintended consequences, or other fodder appearing first. The underlying message: That beyond coming to an understanding and appreciation of the many talents of these twin eleven-year-oldswwe get an abundant view into their exceptional characters, as they fight for stardom. If you devour books on rock bands or the music industrythen read thisand live their storycomeride along with them! Here in Book Three, we build on events that began in prior volumes, and now we see firsthand through the Authors original and authentically casual writing style, just how challenging yet exciting, becoming professional performers perhaps is.

40 Remembered Kay Appenfeldt, 2012-02-24 The efforts of a multitude of individuals who cared only that the Beaver Dam Senior Center existed are honored in these pages. This book chronicles how the people who created the events in these pages went about their work to keep the Beaver Dam Senior Center viable to the older adult in the community of Beaver Dam and surrounding areas. They voluntarily accomplished this with a strong sense of character accomplishing those tasks without need for acclaim or recognition. The pages here reflect excellence in what volunteers can accomplish at a Senior Center, and how those volunteers and their Directors built a Senior Center from the ground up and maintained it for 40 years. This is their story--this is their time to be recognized and respected for what they have done for the older adult population and their community.

30 Queer Lives Matt McEvoy, 2022-02-10 Identity, understanding and celebration through the stories of thirty remarkable New Zealanders. Soldiers, politicians, Olympians, doctors, musicians, academics, businesspeople, farmers, writers and fa'afafine . . . the thirty LGBTQIA+ New Zealanders in this book are remarkable individuals. They each speak with candour and honesty about their challenges and successes, and together they show how LGBTQIA+ people strengthen the rich culture of Aotearoa. From the famous — Grant Robertson, Gareth Farr, Chlöe Swarbrick — to the less well known, these stories encourage empathy and understanding, challenge stereotypes, and offer courage and hope.

Digital Mosaic David Taras, 2015-01-26 Digital Media has transformed the way Canadians socialize and interact, conduct business, experience culture, fight political battles, and acquire knowledge. Traditional media, including newspapers and conventional TV networks, remain the primary link to Canada's political sphere but are under concerted attack. YouTube, blogs, online broadcasting, Facebook, and Twitter have opened new and exciting avenues of expression but offer little of the same nation-building glue as traditional media. Consequently, Canada is experiencing a number of overlapping crises simultaneously: a crisis in news and journalism, threats to the survival of the media system as a whole, and a decline in citizen engagement. In Digital Mosaic, David Taras both embraces and challenges new media by arguing that these coinciding crises bring exciting opportunities as well as considerable dangers to democratic life and citizen engagement in Canada.
