The World's Best Paper Puzzles Jerry Slocum, Jack Botermans, 2007

Let the Good Times Roll Oliver Flesch, Horst Fascher, 2020-04-10 With the opening of the Star-Club, on April 13th, 1962 at Number 39, „Grosse Freiheit, Hamburg / Germany, one of the most important epochs in pop history began. The Beatles, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Bill Haley, Little Richard, Ray Charles, Cream, Small Faces and many more performed here. The superstars of the rock scene streamed in and out of the Star-Club, in the red-light district of „St. Pauli. The man who made this possible was Horst Fascher. A Hamburg native, born in 1936 near the port, who came closer to the superstars than almost any other in Germany. He combined cultural and pop history in one life: Refugee child, tearaway, world-class boxer, Beatles forerunner, Star-Club founder, prison inmate, Vietnam volunteer, music promoter, self-made man, and chronicler of an era, that hasn't been told like this before. Relentlessly open and without pretensions, Horst Fascher reports about the excesses of life behind the scenes. His bizarre and touching memories take the reader back to those wild, golden times of Rock'n'Roll. This is the English translation of the German-language Best-Seller from 2006. With many additions, especially for the years 2006 to 2020.

American Origami, 2019 American Origami? is the result of six years of photographic research by Andres Gonzalez. The project closely examines the epidemic of mass shootings in American schools, interweaving first-person interviews, forensic documents, press materials, and original photographs. The book takes its reader through a visual journey of shared grief and atonement to illuminate moments of beauty and pose moral questions embedded in acts of collective healing. Bound in a unique way, the varied elements repeat and fold into each other, creating a parallel world of past and present, and showing the silenced landscape together with the personal artefacts created by those left behind.
