Christian Radio Bob Lochte, 2005-12-13 Religious programming has been on the airwaves since broadcasting began, but today it is one of the fastest growing categories in radio. This book examines the progression of Christian radio from its beginnings on tiny local stations (like WCAL from St. Olaf's College in Minnesota) to its presence on network and satellite radio of today. The author notes the factors that brought Christian music into the mainstream and discusses how network policies and regulations affected the development of Christian radio. Also considered are the changing demographics that have contributed to the success of Christian broadcasting. Major Christian networks and their evangelical missions are discussed, along with such programs A Money Minute, Life on the Edge and Focus on the Family, which offer practical topical advice for today's Christian. The final chapter considers the future of Christian radio.

Powerful Christian Radio Josh Reid, 2014 Have you ever asked what the point of your local Christian Radio station is? Have you often wondered about their plans and purpose? Are you confused by some of the songs they play on air? Do you wonder in today's Internet savvy world, is there even a need for your local Christian Radio station? If you have ever wondered about why your local Christian Radio station exists, then this is the book for you. In Powerful Christian Radio, author Josh Reid explains in easy-to-read language, the Strategy, Impact and Ministry of your local Christian Radio station. In other words - how does God touch people's lives through the ministry of Christian Radio. Using practical real life examples, this book will show you things you don't know about Christian Radio, and challenge your thinking in the way you view it. In a world that's gone Internet crazy it's easy to convince churches and ministries about the importance of using web strategies or social media as evangelism tools. After all, with more than one billion users, Facebook is now the third largest country in the world, which means it's time to start sending missionaries and planting churches in that country. Online evangelism is an easy sell to a new generation of pastors and leaders who have been posting their lives online since childhood. But lost in the Internet frenzy is the power of traditional media - particularly radio. It's required reading if your goal is to impact this culture with a message of hope. The Internet may be getting all the publicity these days, but radio is alive and well. Do yourself a favor and read this book. - Phil Cooke.

Waves Of Hope Allan T. McGuirl, 2014-07-09 This is the compelling story of how God took a country boy, gave him a worldwide vision and then used him to impact the world through radio. From steamy jungles to clattering cities, from wind swept deserts to frozen tundra GALCOM solar-powered, fix-tuned radios and the accompanying radio stations are being used to transform lives in amazing ways. Filled with remarkable events, this book will keep you riveted page after page.

Proclaiming the Gospel Kenneth MacHarg, 2011-04-05 Hundreds of Christian radio stations are going on the air around the world. Now, station managers, producers, pastors, announcers and all Christian leaders have a guidebook to producing programs and developing a format for these stations. In easy steps, Christian communicators can learn how to:â€¢ Develop a program schedule appropriate for their communityâ€¢ Write and produce programs that will be effective in reaching people for the Lordâ€¢ Use announcing techniques more effectivelyâ€¢ Select music and sound to make programs more attractiveâ€¢ Follow-up with listeners who write, call or visit seeking counsel

Count It All Joy! Yvonne Alexander, 2001 Christian Radio

Amplify Your Message Marcus Brown, 2018-09-04 And (Jesus) said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the Gospel to the whole creation.' Mark 16:15 (ESV) The need for proclaiming the Good News to the world has never been greater. Recent statistics reveal that 63% of Americans go to church less than once a month, and almost half of that group never set foot inside a church. That puts us in a dilemma. If those in need of the message of salvation through Jesus Christ aren't coming to our churches, how do we reach them? How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? Romans 10:14-15 (ESV) Salem Media Group has an answer: Radio. Nielsen Media Research—the world's leader in media data—has found "traditional AM/FM terrestrial radio still retains its undiminished appeal for listeners; 91% of Americans, aged 12 and older, listen to this form of radio." When radio is amplified with new technology, its reach is powerful. When matched with biblical preaching and teaching, God's Kingdom expands. Not only are the lost led to salvation, they are drawn to your church, putting them where they need to be to become disciples. This book details how a local Salem Media radio platform can partner with your church to fulfill the Great Commission and grow your ministry. From the "why" to the "how," we give you everything you need to prayerfully consider this opportunity to pierce the darkness in your community with the Light of the World.

The Way of the Father Michael W. Smith, 2021-05-18 GRAMMY Award winner Michael W. Smith's The Way of the Father offers a deeply personal reflection on his father Paul Smith's legacy and its profound effect on every area of his life. Through the life and lens of his earthly dad, the multi-platinum selling Christian artist gives glimpses of a Father in Heaven that anyone can approach and experience. Michael W. Smith, multi-platinum artist, celebrated songwriter, producer, best-selling author, and acclaimed actor, himself a father of five adult children and grandfather of sixteen, calls upon his humble experiences of growing up in a small West Virginia town to share his father's story. Each chapter identifies a quality and characteristic of his dad that came out of an obedient and sacrificial life, committed to serving his Abba Father, including: Finding truth in tragedy Loving unconditionally Persevering through pain Bringing righteousness to the world Influencing and inspiring generations Discovering identity and approval in Christ Paul Smith was a familiar face in the crowd at Michael W. Smith's concerts over the years. A kind and joyful man who would sing, dance, and worship to the singer's countless number one hits, with his countenance beaming brighter than the spotlights on the stage, Paul would often introduce himself to those nearby and talk about how proud he was of his son. From the artist's early days as a struggling musician in Nashville to his death in 2015 (the year his son's album sales surpassed 15 million), Paul was always Michael's biggest fan. Michael shares how his dad inspired and encouraged him using biblical principles and virtues. Now, Michael passes on these same truths through stories, testimonies, origins of songs, and personal insights from his family life and thirty-five plus years of touring as a Christian artist. He hopes that by sharing his father's legacy, readers will come to find that no matter who our earthly parents have been in our lives, our Abba Father will never fail us. The Way of the Father will likewise challenge readers in their faith journeys so they will one day hear, "Well done, good and faithful servant. You have fought the good fight, run the race, and have been found faithful"—just like Paul Smith heard on the day he was called home to be with his Father.

Friendship Radio Alma Tygert Oline, 2019-01-09 Friendship Radio was written to tell the story of the beginning of this unique ministry and to show readers how real and involved the Lord is in our lives. He is a God of love and care, and has a concern for our every need. I also wanted to show that we are not all alone in our work for the Lord. He brings people into our lives who are just who is needed and with whom we can share the joys of serving the Lord together.

Stations of the Cross Paul Apostolidis, 2000-06-02 DIVAnalysis of the nationally broadcast radio program Focus on the Family that argues that the Christian right's popularity stems from its resistance to the increasing influence of market forces in the welfare state, the electoral system, and the/div

The Gospel According to Rev. Walt 'Baby' Love Walt Baby Love, 2007-02-01 For more than three decades, Walt Baby Love has touched the lives of more than ten million listeners across the world. Every week he shares his triumphs, challenges, and soul-stirring moments through his award-winning radio programs. He has built a following of millions of listeners and repeatedly shattered racial barriers as a black man in an industry long dominated by whites. Yet this former army paratrooper with the famed 82nd Airborne Division, who served in Southeast Asia, also broke ground as a man of disciplined, abiding faith who refused to bow to corrupt influences. His enormously popular syndicated rhythm-and-blues show lost its spot on a Chicago radio station because Walt would not refrain from counseling his listeners to look to Jesus. Though beloved by his devoted listeners, Walt was often treated as an outcast by other African-American broadcasters and industry executives because of his outspoken and steadfast devotion to the Christian way of life. Still, both earthly and heavenly rewards have come in great abundance to the man raised by his great-grandparents in rural Pennsylvania. In The Gospel According to Rev. Walt Baby Love he offers reflections and inspirational thoughts drawn from his life. He shares how his religious convictions helped him survive and thrive in an industry he believed to be rife with corruption and ungodly influences. And he recounts the story of his progression of faith from a player of gospel and R&B music to an ordained minister and preacher of God's Word. Each chapter focuses on a Bible verse, reflecting on its significance to him and guiding you on how to incorporate its teachings into your own daily life. An uplifting story of faith, family, and forgiveness in the face of God's plan, The Gospel According to Rev. Walt Baby Love is inspirational reading at its best.

Cry from Immanuel Mountain Ed Tuten, 2003-03 Ed Tuten, 40 years old, and his wife Jane with 2 small children, Denise and Howard, are living happily, carefree and enjoying life. Suddenly God stops Ed in his tracks and over a period of a few weeks completely changes his purpose and direction in life by instructing him to build a Christian FM Radio Station. He knows absolutely nothing about radio, has no reserve monies and his wife doesn't work a job outside the home. He soon finds himself jobless and penniless, with four mouths to feed, a mortgage and bills to pay and self-esteem sliding to the bottom of the pit. This story is about how God, in teaching them who to trust, provided monies and means as well as tearing down pride while all the time showing them how to exercise and strengthen the measure of faith He had given them. It is the true hand of God guiding and leading them through many trials and tests. At any point in time, quitting would have been a blessing, but knowing deep in his Spirit that God Almighty Himself was behind what seemed to be madness and a sure pattern to destructions, he continued to push ahead and God honored the deep seated faith placed in him at the time the Rhema came forth from the Father - Build Me A Christian FM Radio Station.

Frogs in the Loo Patti Olson, 2011-08-29 From a daily commute through Seattle rush-hour traffic to equatorial jungles, the Olsons experienced a radical change in lifestyle when they answered a call to serve God in Christian radio. Their travels over a nine-year period brought challenging and joyful experiences in cross-cultural living in the twenty-first century. Their stories range from compassionate to humorous as they relate their extraordinary adventures. Travel along with the Olsons as they move from country to country across five continents. Author Patti Olson captured the sights, sounds, and emotions of new discoveries as they experienced them, allowing her to recount them in rich detail in Frogs in the Loo and Other Short-Term Missions Tales.

KHOF-FM Jack Short, 2022-10-17 If God prompts you to do something, He will provide the means to do it. The story of radio station KHOF-FM in Southern California is a good example. The pastor of a small church was prompted to start a Christian radio station, something unheard of and seemingly impossible in those days. There was no money available at the time to do such a thing. God provided what was needed including providing the writer of this book and his training and experience. There were many serious moments on the air but also many funny and interesting occasions behind the scenes and off the air. This book relates both of these sides of the story of this historic station and the author's experience as a part of it.

Wrestling with God Chad Bonham, 2001 More than 20 million people watch wrestling on television each week . . . and they buy books by the millions.

An Ordinary Guy... with the Extraordinary God Dick Snavelly, 2007-04 Dick Snavelly reveals some of his childhood experiences and personal challenges that prepared him to organize and lead Family Life Ministries for nearly fifty years. These experiences include miracles, exciting answers to prayer along with the good, the bad, and the ugly. The reader will share in Dick's early struggles from spankings in third grade, reckless driving as a teenager, the search for a wife, and getting fired as a pastor. You will also rejoice with him in his glorious victories of a personal encounter with God, working with troubled boys, the conversion of a city gang member and the building of a Christian radio station that became a network of Christian FM stations. The excitement and thrill of victory is evident in the story of Family Life Ministries/Network. Dick has often prayed Lord I don't know where you are leading me today but help me to hang on. Dick Snavelly was raised in a Mennonite family in Lancaster County, PA. He organized Family Life Ministries, New Life Homes-Snell Farm, Twin Tiers Youth For Christ, and Family Life Network. He is a graduate of Bob Jones University Dick was a film evangelist with the Billy Graham Evangelistic Film Association, and pastored a church briefly in West Virginia. In 1957 he moved his family to New York where he organized Family Life Ministries, Inc. He led the organization as President and CEO for 47 years and was succeeded by his son Rick. He is married 55 years to Jacqueline DeVere. They have four children and eleven grandchildren. All four children are active in their church and serving the Lord. Dick is just an ordinary guy. What you see is what you get. He reveals some of the good, bad, and ugly times as he candidly tells of his life experiences in this book.

A Comparison of Religiously-oriented Radio Stations by Degree of Agreement with a National Council of Churches Position Keith LeMay, 1966

Truth for Life Alistair Begg, 2021-11-01 A year of gospel-saturated daily devotions from renowned Bible teacher Alistair Begg. Start with the gospel each and every day with this one-year devotional by renowned Bible teacher Alistair Begg. We all need to be reminded of the truth that anchors our life and excites and equips us to live for Christ. Reflecting on a short passage each day, Alistair spans the Scriptures to show us the greatness and grace of God, and to thrill our hearts to live as His children. His clear, faithful exposition and thoughtful application mean that this resource will both engage your mind and stir your heart. Each day includes prompts to apply what you've read, a related Bible text to enjoy, and a plan for reading through the whole of the Scriptures in a year. The hardback cover and ribbon marker make this a wonderful gift.

They Like Jesus but Not the Church Dan Kimball, 2009-05-26 Many people today, especially among emerging generations, don't resonate with the church and organized Christianity. Some are leaving the church and others were never part of the church in the first place. Sometimes it's because of misperceptions about the church. Yet often they are still spiritually open and fascinated with Jesus. This is a ministry resource book exploring six of the most common objects and misunderstandings emerging generations have about the church and Christianity. The objections come from conversations and interviews the church has had with unchurched twenty and thirty-somethings at coffee houses. Each chapter raises the objection using a conversational approach, provides the biblical answers to that objection, gives examples of how churches are addressing this objection, and concludes with follow-through projection suggestions, discussion questions, and resource listings.

Smells Like Bacon Tommy Woodard, Eddie James, RENE GUTTERIDGE, 2021-09-07 The guys who together form the popular comedy duo The Skit Guys, take their distinct brand of humor and apply it to a guide on how to make and keep friends and why it matters for a life of faith and laughs. Since their high-school days, they've been writing and performing hilarious and poignant skits live around the world and on camera, as well as on their site, SkitGuys.com. Everywhere they go, the question people always ask them is, "How did you guys get to be and figure out how to stay friends?" Now, this offbeat duo is coming together to present Smells Like Bacon: The Skit Guys Guide to Lifelong Friendships, a book about the power of friendships and how to build the kind of friendships that last. Written in the signature hilarity of a Skit Guys dialogue—with well-placed banter or two sprinkled in for good measure—Smells Like Bacon explores: - Who needs friends? - How to be a good friend - Awkward things not to say to potential friends - How to handle difficult situations in friendship - And many fun quizzes, random stories, and references to bacon along the way
