Post-beur Cinema: North African Emigre and Maghrebi-French Filmmaking in France since 2000 Will Higbee, 2013-07-31 Since the early 1980s, filmmakers of Maghrebi origin have made a key contribution to the representation of issues such as immigration, integration and national identity in French cinema. However, they have done so mostly from a position on the margins of the industry. In contrast, since the early 2000s, Maghrebi-French and North African emigre filmmakers have occupied an increasingly prominent position in on both sides of the camera, announcing their presence on French screens in a wider range of genres and styles than ever before. This greater prominence and move to the mainstream has not automatically meant that these films have lost any of the social or political relevance of Beur cinema of the 1980s or the banlieue film of the 1990s. Indeed in the 2000s these films have increasingly questioned the boundaries between national, transnational and diasporic cinema, whilst simultaneously demanding, either implicitly or explicitly, a reconsideration of the very difference that has traditionally been seen as a barrier to the successful integration of North African immigrants and their descendants into French society. Through a detailed study of this transformative decade for Maghrebi-French and North African emigre filmmaking in France, this book argues for the emergence of a Post-Beur cinema in the 2000s that is simultaneously global and local in its outlook. An absorbing introduction to this key development in contemporary French cinema, Post-Beur Cinema is essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies, French Studies and Diaspora Studies.

Psychiatric Treatment of Sexual Offenders Jamshid A.

Marvasti,2004 The approach of this book is a humanistic one that characterizes the individual suffering from paraphilia as a human being. With this perspective in mind, the author posits that any sexual offender who has a history of childhood trauma needs to be treated not only for the sexual offenses, but also for past trauma. Consisting of eight chapters, the first chapter addresses the issues of paraphilias and their sexual offense behavior. Chapter 2 focuses on typology and characteristics of pedophiliacs and rapists. Chapter 3 details the issues of sexual offense and hypersexuality in elderly males. Ch.

Emergency Preparedness and Disaster Recovery in School

Libraries Christie Kaaland, William Lokey, 2014-12-16 When disaster strikes, school librarians can play a key role in keeping kids safe. This is the only book written specifically to provide school librarians with emergency preparedness and recovery tools as well as curricular tie-ins. No school is immune to disaster, whether in the form of a natural event like a tornado or a tragedy like the violence that occurred at Sandy Hook Elementary School. The key to minimizing injury or death in an emergency is preparedness—something the school librarian is uniquely positioned to lead. This must-have book will show you how to be proactive in getting your school ready for the worst. It provides comprehensive preparedness and recovery plans, check lists, and curricular recommendations on preparedness that can be tailored to your individual library and community. Covering natural disasters, human-made disasters, and school violence, the book shows you how to conduct drills, assess vulnerabilities and risk, communicate preparedness plans, and use bibliotherapy for disaster recovery. It also describes how your library can be a safe haven for students who feel disconnected, bullied, or otherwise disenfranchised. Although the book is primarily intended for school librarians, classroom teachers will also find many ideas here for helping students be better prepared for disasters, whatever their cause or severity.

Section 504: Key Information and Classroom Accommodations (2nd Edition) Sandra Rief,2017-10-02 Federal law—Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973— requires all schools receiving federal financial assistance to ensure that students with qualifying disabilities have equal opportunity as non-disabled students to participate in all the academic, nonacademic, and extracurricular activities the school has to offer. Section 504 accommodations, which are developed by a school team and documented in a written Section 504 plan, include adaptations, supports, and modifications that are designed to help students with disabilities access the curriculum and all school programs in the least restrictive environment (LRE). In this new and expanded second edition of Section 504: Classroom Accommodations, Sandra Rief presents dozens of effective and reasonable accommodations, organized by behavioral, learning and academic areas, which may be considered in the development of a student's 504 plan. Practical suggestions for 504 accommodations are made in the areas of Attention and focus, Work production and output, Planning and organizing, Time awareness and management, Listening, recall and following directions, Test taking, Behavior, Academic areas. Since under Section 504 students may also receive a variety of services and supports by providers other than classroom teachers, this guide also describes practical, easy-to-use accommodations for speech/language, occupational or physical therapists.

Daddy Issues Tim Wortham, 2021-06-04 "It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men." This Frederick Douglass quote opens the story of a man's journey to overcome the trauma of his father's sudden absence from his home and, ultimately, his life. Author Tim Wortham, Jr. recalls childhood experiences and the impact his father's departure had on his development. His story helps dispel the myth that daddy issues are reserved for girls and women. This book is written for the men and boys who have struggled with processing their feelings around their fathers' absence and the people who love them.
