The Business Manager's Guide To Getting The Best From Your Team Richard Parkes Cordock, If you are a manager in business, and you lead a team of people, you're immediately under pressure to deliver results. Whether you lead a small team of five, or an entire department of 100 or more, the buck stops with you when it comes to results. Good or bad, you are judged on the results you deliver and goals you achieve. But in reality, it's not just you who delivers results, it's your entire team, and it's your job as a manager (and leader) to get the very best from your team each day. This is often easier said than done, and for many managers, improving team performance is a constant headache and source of frustration. Even managers of successful teams are under pressure to achieve more and are on the 'look out' for ways to give them the edge. In 'The Business Manager's Guide To Getting The Best From Your Team', you'll discover a new 'coaching based approach' which you can personally use to improve the performance of your team and the results it delivers. You'll be introduced to a proven step-by-step methodology which other managers (worldwide) are using right now to get the best from their teams, and drive their business units forward. Whatever your industry sector, team size or level of experience as a manager, the ideas in this book will work for you.
