Conference Call Howard Colyer,2014-05-02 A one act play with four characters. An interrogation and a ghost story. A man's wife has vanished. He can't remember when or why; nor can he remember his own name. The relentlessness of this nightmarish scenario transfixes us to the last. What's On London. This play of mysterious circumstances is created from an all too familiar hollow conference centre with sinister, soulless 'doctors', reminiscent of the infamous Weird Sisters. What's Been Seen. Completely spellbinding. Everything Theatre. A briskly delivered, recondite ghost story, it echoes with the torment of a guilty conscience and the distress of a turbulent mind.
