Striking photographs of birds, mammals, reptiles, and aquatic creatures fill each page of six board books for little hands. Short, first person text pulls young listeners into the natural world and offers interesting facts about habitat, diet, and features of each animal. The six books are die cut puzzle shapes that fit together to form a sturdy, decorative cube. Placed on a table or nightstand, it acts as a reminder to revisit the animals within. The books also fit together to form a flat panel montage of the creatures in their environments. The Cube Book is a tactile way to engage young children and hold their attention while instilling the importance of safeguarding the world's glorious array of wildlife. A total of thirty-six beautiful portraits from the giant panda to the colorful clown fish take us to the rain forests, grasslands, wetlands, deserts, oceans, and polar regions of the planet. Six ten-page board books, two types of puzzles, an ornament, and just the right amount of information make this a value-packed gift to awaken curiosity.

The Modernist Bestiary Timothy Mathews, Sarah Kay, 2020-07-08 The Modernist Bestiary centres on Le Bestiaire ou Cortège d'Orphée (1911), a multimedia collaborative work by French-Polish poet Guillaume Apollinaire and French artist Raoul Dufy, and its homonym, The Bestiary or Procession of Orpheus (1979), by British artist Graham Sutherland. Rather than reconstructing the lineage of these two compositions, the book uncovers the aesthetic and intellectual processes involved that operate in different times, places and media. The Apollinaire and Dufy Bestiary is an open-ended collaboration, a feature that Sutherland develops in his re-visiting, and this book shows how these neglected works are caught up in many-faceted networks of traditions and genres. These include Orphic poetry from the past, contemporary musical settings, and bestiary writing from its origins to the present. The nature of productive dialogue between thought and art, and the refracted light they throw on each other are explored in each of the pieces in the book, and the aesthetic experience emerges as generative rather than reductive or complacent. The contributors' encounters with these works take the form of poetry and essays, all moving freely between different disciplines and practices, humanistic and posthumanist critical dimensions, as well as different animals and art forms. They draw on disciplines ranging from music, art history, translation, Classical poetry and French poetry, and are nurtured by approaches including phenomenology, cultural studies, sound studies, and critical animal studies. Collectively the book shows that the aesthetic encounter, by nature affective, is by nature also interdisciplinary and motivating, and that it spurs the critical in addressing the complex issues of 'humananimality'.

Bestiary Julio Cortazar, 2020-02-06 A collection of masterful short stories in Julio Cortazar's sophisticated, powerful and gripping style. A frustrated love triangle, brought together by a plundered Aztec idol, spills over into brutality. A lodger's inability to stop vomiting bunny rabbits inspires a personal confession. As dream melds into reality, and reality melts into nightmare, one constant remains throughout these thirty-five stories: the singular brilliance of Julio Cortazar's imagination. WITH A NEW INTRODUCTION BY KEVIN BARRY 'Anyone who doesn't read Cortázar is doomed' Pablo Neruda
