Free Poetically David Watkins,2022-07-05 THE PLACE HOLLOWED OUT When born the occupied space in the human mind is comparatively empty considering immediately the five human senses begin sending signals for processing and storage and suddenly memories generated by those around us and referred to us as what we are taught become the decisions of behavior, that is, things we did, what we do and what we ought. A different moment for every human being but in due time we learn the process of choice. We're convinced 1 plus 1 is 2 by the outside teacher, and acceptance is taught by an inner voice. A mind that comprehends stars hundreds of thousands of miles away but can appreciate raindrops. Calculates, speculates, contemplates but doesn't know where a simple breeze starts or stops. So the spaces where numbers, letter arrangements, emotions and memories about love or hate provide chemical storage in each of us and is individually controlled as we influence our fate. Chemist, electrician, doctors, surgeons, undeniably the choices can make us weep or sing. Filling that place hollowed out in our mind with what we choose and whatever our life brings. Only a few will read what was intended to mean so much to so many but you may simple reject it. Go ahead read the political, the humor, the love, but don't be surprised if it touches your spirit. The heart disclosed in this writing contains information for that place hollowed out in every mind. It may be only one simple inspiring little poem, perhaps hidden, but that's for you to find.

Poetic Matters of Life David Watkins,2014-05-15 Ever feel like the young fighter who swings, pounds and hammers his way into the ring of life. After a few rounds of hits and misses we learn to defend and protect what becomes our personality, our love, our life. Eventually we grow tired of the struggle and move from the ropes to our corner and hopefully before we are taken from the ring there is at least a faint applause. Poems like Flowers Of Freedom and Life's Sweet Music stimulate the realization of how important you are in the circle of your acquaintance. What The Children Think and many others will touch your heart for the family and Pa Pas' Table will teach that with luck we will all get old and need the love of others. My experiences, my heart and the lessons I expose in Poetic Matters Of Life may not present the world any great wisdom but perhaps my poetic ignorance will demand your consideration. And then your wisdom will be exposed by the benefit you reap.

The Original's Return David Watkins,2014-06-06 "He's tearing him apart! Help us, please, God help us!" Sergeant Peter Knowles has seen it all: in Afghanistan he witnessed death on a level that no-one should walk away from. Returning to Britain, he jumps at the chance to lead a small team in Devon. The task sounds more like a holiday; exactly what Knowles and his men need. The mission: watch Jack Stadler. When the first dismembered body is found, Knowles begins to realise he has made a terrible mistake... proper British horror - Mark Torley

The History of RAF Aerobatic Teams From 1920 David Watkins,2011-06-13 The Royal Air Force has long recognized the value of display flying for pilot training, prestige and recruiting purposes, and the standard of its formation aerobatic teams has always stood favorable comparison with those of air forces of other nations.Aerobatics have always played a prominent part in RAF training. They are not performed merely to provide a spectacle for the public but are an essential step in the making of a pilot, giving him confidence in himself and his aircraft. Formation aerobatics give him the added factor of confidence in his leader and other members of the team.This history of RAF aerobatic teams is the result of many years of painstaking and meticulous research from its early beginnings with five Sop with Snipes at the Hendon Pageant in 1920 to the present day 'Red Arrows'.The book also contains an introduction which details the gradual development from experimental and 'stunt' flying of the early aviators, through the aerial artistry of using smoke to highlight maneuvers and tied-together formation aerobatics, to the introduction of jet teams after the war. Also included in the book is a detailed index listing each team and its members from 1920 and it will undoubtedly provide an essential reference work on Royal Air Force formation aerobatic teams for aviation historians and enthusiasts.

The Psychology of Asian Learners Ronnel B. King, Allan B. I. Bernardo, 2015-10-12 This book celebrates the scholarly achievements of Prof. David A. Watkins, who has pioneered research on the psychology of Asian learners, and helps readers grasp the cognitive, motivational, developmental, and socio-cultural aspects of Asian learners learning experiences. A wide range of empirical and review papers, which examine the characteristics of these experiences as they are shaped by both the particularities of diverse educational systems/cultural milieus and universal principles of human learning and development, are showcased. The individual chapters, which explore learners from fourteen Asian countries, autonomous regions, and/or economies, build on research themes and approaches from Prof. Watkins' research work, and are proof of the broad importance and enduring relevance of his seminal psychological research on learners and the learning process.

Leeds United Fiasco David Watkins, 2014-05-07 This is the fourth book from David Watkins as he continues to follow Leeds United home and away as they continue to pursue a return to top flight football. Once again this is a season of failure for the club; in fact it became a fiasco of a season both on the pitch where the team imploded in January never to recover; and off the pitch as owners GFH Capital tried to sell the club first to a group with no money and then to an Italian maverick with tax evasion cases hanging over his head. This book describes every step of this latest journey, the highs, the lows, the comedy and the despair; the life of a football fan is a complex mix of logistics and emotions.

Someone closer to Knowles than he could ever suspect.

The Recovered Addict David Watkins, 2020-11-20 The Recovered Addict: Living Your Best Life Beyond Struggle Book encourages eight chapters of personal accountability between an individual and God on overcoming the addiction to living a life of struggle. Our circumstances may often appear to be roadblocks meant to keep us from reaching a destination, but it may be that the very thing that is causing us to struggle may be the very stepping stone that God wants to use to get it right in front of our purpose. Other times, our thoughts or our faulty judgment or actions cause us to encounter a continued life of struggling. God will use every setback, mental block, carnal decision to work together for the sake of purpose, direction and meaning to bring us into the men and women that God has called you to be.

The Devil's Inn David Watkins, 2017-04-27 I don't want to die in a pub in Devon... There is a pub in the heart of Dartmoor where a fire has burned every day for over one hundred and fifty years. It is said the fire never goes out. It is said that if it does, the Devil will appear and claim the souls of all inside. Tonight, seven strangers are stranded there during a fierce snowstorm. Tonight, the fire will go out... Praise for David Watkins David Watkins writes very well: he has the ability to draw you in to his characters' lives, which at the beginning are quite normal, and then of course you can't let go.
