Diabetes: Frequently Asked Questions Robert L. Gaskins, 2014-06-12
FAQ For DIABETES was written with the newly diagnosed in mind. When the doctor says, "YOU HAVE DIABETES!" there are lots of questions that come to mind. Robert sets out to answer those questions some of which he had when he was first diagnosed with diabetes. Robert has also compiled questions with answers from his audience that he receives from his speaking circuit. Even though Robert's speaking tour is sponsored by a pharmaceutical company, he explains things from the patient's point of view. This is an excellent book for the newcomer to diabetes or for someone not in control of their diabetes. It is a one-stop source to get those nagging questions answered. You will find a wealth of information on the things you need to do to maintain a healthy living with diabetes; terms you will need to talk to your health team about; and what to look for in those dreaded lab reports.
