Beneath those waters there really is an entirely new world - a world full of beauty and mystery that few humans have the opportunity to experience. In fact, that is what the word Scuba means: Self Contained Underwater Breathing Apparatus. This apparatus allows human beings to dive to depths that were once unthinkable, and to stay under the water for long periods of time, depending on how full the air tank is. Different mixtures of gasses are used in the air tank, depending on the length and depth of the planned dive. WHY KEEP A LOGBOOK?
