They have been arranged in the keys that are most suitable for singing, and can be played in a variety of styles using only the words and the accompanying chords. In cases where there are two versions of a particular tune, both have been included. If one version is not well known, however, the most widely used melody is selected.

Favorite Recorder Tunes - Beautiful Airs and Ballads of the British Isles

Marcia Diehl, 2021-11-18 This exceptional collection of 41 truly beautiful airs and ballads from the British Isles offers both well-known tunes by the prolific blind Irish harpist, Turlough O'Carolan and rarely heard melodies by anonymous composers; all have stood the test of time. Arranged for soprano or tenor recorder, these include O'Carolan's classically influenced "Lord Inchiquin" and "Eleanor Plunkett" as well as "O Gentle Dove" and "Cuckoo Dear"—both examples of the strong tradition of song in Wales. Among other tunes, the haunting modal melodies of "The Dark Slender Boy" and "Enchanted Valley" express the melancholic heart and soul of the British Isles. A few of these songs have taken on a life of their own in modern times. "Bonny at Morn", a popular traditional tune of northern England and Scotland, was arranged for soprano voice and harp by the 20th century British composer, Benjamin Britten. "The Skye Boat Song" originally recounted Bonnie Prince Charles Edward Stuart's journey to the Isle of Skye after his defeat at the historic Battle of Culloden. Later, the song evolved into a lilting lullaby and was more recently used as the theme song for the popular Outlander television series. Departing slightly from recorder notation practice, author Marcia Diehl has judiciously arranged these melodies complete with spare slur markings to aid the amateur player in authentically and musically rendering these tunes.

Favorite Old-Time American Songs for Ukulele MARK "KAILANA"

NELSON, 2016-07-19 This book features over 100 traditional American folk songs newly arranged for the ukulele, with chord diagrams and melody lines in tablature and standard notation. This extensive collection makes Favorite Old-Time American Songs for Ukulele a treasury of the best songs from the American tradition. Nothing in this book is out of range for novice ukulele players. The songs are in keys that are both easy to sing and that fit the melodic range of the ukulele. Of course, not every voice sings comfortably in every key, so information on transposition and a short discussion for players of the baritone ukulele are included. Although you do not need to read music or tablature to use this book, short introductions to each are included. In putting together this collection, the author was inspired by the old American practice of making a sampler: an endearing needlework design showing off various stitches and techniques. The book presents a sampling of the best American songs for folks working in schools, churches, hospitals, coffeehouses and other public performance spaces, or for anyone wishing to expand their repertoire and brush up on a few old chestnuts. There's a little of everything here: sentimental old hearth songs, laments and lullabies, ballads and play-parties, the sacred and profane. The overwhelming majority of songs come from pre-industrial rural traditions, because this is the kind of music that seems to go well with homemade music-making in any age. Downloadable audio available online.

Favorite Sacred Songs for Children . . . Holidays & Holy Days Anna Laura Page, Jean Anne Shafferman, Holidays and Holy Days is the second collection in the popular song series for grades K-5, Favorite Sacred Songs for Children. Included are songs for Thanksgiving, Valentine's Day, Mother's or Father's Day (or baptism), Earth or Peace Sunday, Christmas and Easter, Advent and Epiphany, Ash Wednesday and Palm Sunday, Ascension and Christ the King, All Saints' Day and Pentecost, and a patriotic medley.

Favorite Recorder Tunes - Early Music Gems Marcia Diehl, 2022-09-21 Recorder specialist Marcia Diehl presents 41 favorite melodies from the Renaissance and early Baroque periods, each with suggested accompaniment chords. This era of music is particularly attractive on the recorder not only because of its lyrical qualities but also because the recorder was already one of the most popular, accessible instruments of the day. The collection features many dance tunes by Praetorius, Susato, Gervaise and John Playford plus familiar themes like "Greensleeves," "Drive the Cold Winter Away," and Thomas Morley's "It Was a Lover and His Lass," which may have been used contemporarily onstage with William Shakespeare's As You Like It. The book closes with two pieces by Beatrice de Dia, a troubairitz or female troubadour who wrote songs of courtly love.
