Excavations in Cowbridge, South Glamorgan, 1977-88 J. Parkhouse,1996 The history of this report includes every archaeologists' nightmare - a warehouse fire which destroyed some of the finds and the b/w photographic archive. Power, Choice and Vulnerability Peter Winchester,2014-04-23 Natural disasters make dramatic reading. Every year, some area of the world is devastated by a disaster, with enormous consequent loss of life and disruption to livelihoods. What can be done to alleviate this? Why are such disasters so lethal? Why do people expose themselves to such hazards? Do mitigation programmes help? What effect does aid really have on the areas that receive it? By examining one particular cyclone-prone area of Southern India in great detail over a 10-year period Peter Winchester has come up with some perceptive answers to the questions. In particular, he formulates a set of five 'golden rules' for disaster management. The book will provide valuable and thought-provoking reading for anyone involved with disaster management, and will be essential for all those whose work involves aid or development in disaster-prone areas.
