The Lucrative Dog Breeding Business Vincent Ellwood,2018-10-19 A dog breeding business is not a business for everyone; however, if you know a lot about a certain breed and have the desire to turn your interest in canines into a full-time and long-time pursuit, a dog breeding business may be the best opportunity for you. Dog breeding will absolutely be personally and financially rewarding but does require a lot of patience, hard work, knowledge and commitment, but if you are up for the challenge then shoot for the gold!Breeding is a continual learning process; thus, it is highly recommended that you research on the appearance, history, temperament, feeding habits, and other important information on your chosen breed beforehand. You should also research on the grooming and training needs for your breed. Read on and learn the important steps to take when planning to start up a dog breeding business.Step 1: Know the requirementsIt is important to know the standard requirements for you breed if you plan on the dog being a member of a professional dog breeding community like the American Kennel Club (AKC). Another important thing to keep up with when starting a dog breeding business is the breed trends. You should also join and participate in local dog breeders associations to start a good relationship in the dog breeding industry as well as to keep up with the latest dog breeding news and information. A good idea also is to, have your dog participate in competitions which will allow you to ask a higher price for your dogs puppies.Step 2: Dog EvaluationBefore purchasing dogs for the breeding purpose, make sure they have undergone a thorough and careful evaluation. Before you start training and breeding you must know everything about the dog.This will help you prevent problems along the breeding line.Step 3: Good record keepingYou need to always have the following dog records and always keep them updated: proof of registration, medical history and any other document on the dog. A customer may ask you for these documents or others to get a proof of pedigree. A dog breeding business without all the documentations ready to go is not reputable.Step 4: Set up a kennelThe dogs for breeding will have to have a safe place to stay after you have bought them. Registering a kennel that only has 2 or 3 dogs is not required in most cases. If you want, you can name your kennel and register your chosen name with the American Kennel Club (AKC). Registering with the AKC is a great way or advertising your dog breeding business.The above mentioned steps are just the basic of starting up a business indog breeding but of course, you also need to learn how to provide and ample amount of care to your female dogs while they are pregnant. Be sure you are prepared for the birth process and that you will do the necessary things.Now you should be ready to kick start your business!
