Silly Sheep G. L. Smith, 2015-03-01 Silly Sheep follows a young sheep getting caught in a series of conundrums and problems that must be solved along the way. Whether it is one of Silly Sheep's mishaps or a friend struggling with a problem of their own, the characters help teach the meaning of facing life's ups and downs, as well as building friendship together. About the Author G. L. Smith is a student at Black Hawk College in Moline, Illinois. She is working towards a certificate in Art Technologies. Many of her courses in school involve what she loves the most: art. Ever since she was a little girl, Smith loved to draw. Even today she will sketch and doodle on random sheets of paper, whether it is blank or a class packet. There has never been a limit to where she expresses her creativity. When Smith was in her senior year of high school she came up with the idea of Silly Sheep for her Creative Writing class. She started sketching cartoon animals out on notebook paper. When she drew the sheep she knew it would be her star character. She wanted to tell a story that would appeal to a general audience. Now that Smith has her first book complete, she plans to continue her creative route by writing more stories and drawing more pictures. She would like to entertain people of all ages with her stories and artwork.

The Singing Contest at the Farm Laurence Laurent, 2018-12-30 This book is about which farm animal can best sing like the rooster. After all the participants try out without success, the chick thinks he can sing like the rooster, but he is afraid to try because of a lack of confidence. After listening to the words of encouragement from his mother, the chick decides to give it a try. As a result, he is the one who wins the singing contest at the farm. The Singing Contest at the Farm is a book about farm animals and also is a book that can teach children to be patient by learning to wait for their turn, to understand sequences by using first, next, and then; and to boost their self-esteem by believing in themselves. Most of all, this book teaches one moral lesson: never judge a book by its cover. Ce livre parle de quel animal de la ferme peut le mieux chanter comme le coq. Après que tous les participants aient essayé sans succès, le poussin pense pouvoir chanter comme le coq, mais il a peur d'essayer en raison d'un manque de confiance en soi. Après avoir écouté les mots d'encouragement de sa mère, le poussin décide d'essayer. En conséquence, il est celui qui gagne le concours de chant à la ferme. Le concours de chant à la ferme est un livre sur les animaux de la ferme et aussi un livre qui peut apprendre aux enfants à faire preuve de patience en apprenant à attendre leur tour, à comprendre les séquences en utilisant d'abord, ensuite, puis, après, augmenter l'estime de soi en croyant en eux-mêmes. Surtout, ce livre donne une leçon morale: Ne jamais juger un livre à sa couverture.
