Entrepreneurial Insanity in the Dry Cleaning Business Roger T. McManus, Kevin Dubois, 2015-03-31 Roger McManus, a battle-scarred, veteran entrepreneur, collaborates with Kevin Dubois one of the dry cleaning industry's brightest stars, to develop an entirely different perspective on the subject of dry cleaning business ownership. Entrepreneurial Insanity in the Dry Cleaning Business hits home for those who 'walk the walk', comments co-author McManus. The book challenges the owners of dry cleaning businesses to look at whether they are limiting their scope to that of a small business or they have expanded their view to be that of an entrepreneur. It defines the question and describes how a dry cleaner can tell the difference between small business ownership and entrepreneurship. And, surprisingly, the analysis is less about money than it is about attitude. This is all about operating systems that allow a business to run. If the systems are in place, the owner is almost irrelevant. When the right systems are in place, the owner, Dubois quips, can essentially manage the business from an iPhone. The book challenges the owners of dry cleaning businesses to keep their personal involvement in perspective, and to get real about the business! The ideas in this book will forever change how the motivated dry cleaner will view his or her profession - and life. The concept behind Entrepreneurial Insanity rests on that premise; love what you do, but work toward having a life and a business that are separate entities. Chances are very good that someday these two entities will want (or need) to take divergent paths. This book lays out the case for, and the strategy by which, professional dry cleaners can grow their business and regain their freedom. This book is the product of entrepreneurial insanity. Growth is the only cure.

Filial Piety George Lipponer, 2009-05 It seemed that every decision she made became a challenge. Will she follow her dreams or choose to remain within the mores of society? Hanna is the youngest sibling of a Korean working couple. Two older sisters and a brother complete the family whose parents suddenly think they are entering old age and wonder who will take care of them under the Filial Piety custom which has prevailed for centuries. But Hanna is a beauty who seeks to make her own way in a modern society. Though desiring romance and a love affair, her situation always changes, thrusting her life into and out of constant disorder. She is on a perpetual roller coaster when unexpected events unfold.

Taking the Wrap Dolores Johnson, 2004-11 Seventh book in the Mandy Dyer dry cleaning mystery series

Buttons and Foes Dolores Johnson, 2010-04-01 Valued customer and old friend Thelma Chatwick is dead, and intrepid Denver dry cleaner Mandy Dyer is called upon to brush up her sleuthing skills and tidy up the investigation's loose ends. Why did Thelma insist on saving seemingly worthless garments-could her motives have something to do with the unusual buttons Thelma collected? When Mandy decides to hire a private detective, the reluctant gumshoe turns out to be none other than a rough, handsome heartbreaker Mandy stood up in high school. He's still a good-looking guy, but he has since transformed himself into Mr. Clean. Romance is a distinct possibility; if, that is, the pair can outwit a murderer. Mandy is also reunited in this adventure with her indispensable right-hand man, Mack Rivers; the all-too-dispensable Betty-the-bag-lady; and Nat, wonderboy reporter. Will they be able to help Mandy get the case all sewn up? Will the truth of Thelma's demise come out in the wash? Or will the witnesses button their lips and let Mandy get the starch knocked out of her? Sit back and relax-Mandy will get the whole mystery ironed out in no time. We guarantee that Buttons and Foes will pick up your spirits and deliver a rousing good time.

Effect of Dry Cleaning on Silks Moses H. Goldman, 1926 The study of tin-weighted and unweighted samples of silk after various treatments and exposures to sunlight and storage at standard conditions (of 65 per cent relative humidity at 70 degrees F. temperature) permits the following conclusions: (1) No deterioration results from exposures to standard atmospheric conditions over a period of two and one-half months even when acid or alkaline perspirations are applied. (2) Sunlight exposure causes a marked deterioration in both unweighted (but dyed) and tin-weighted silks, the loss in strength in 100 hours exposure amounting to about 25 per cent for unweighted and about 50 to 75 per cent for weighted silks. (3) Acid and alkaline perspiration treatments increase the deterioration when sunlight exposures are given, so that the loss in strength in 100 hours' exposure is about 35 per cent for unweighted and about 65 to 100 per cent for weighted silk. (4) Dry-cleaning solvents in no case caused any appreciable deterioration of the silk fabrics.
