Martiliz's Easter Hunt Liz Bockelman,2018-05-30 Martiliz is very competitive and loves her town's Easter egg hunt. However, she creates mayhem every year by grabbing and stealing other children's candy and trinkets. Worse yet, Martiliz doesn't care what other kids think of her. She just wants the most loot. This year, Martiliz wants to find a golden egg to win a special prize and nothing will get in her way. Or will a wily white rabbit trip her up teaching her a lesson? Martiliz's Easter Hunt provides a number of teachable moments on the topics of selfishness, repentance, forgiveness and redemption. In addition, the book incorporates the story of Easter and the importance of the Christian holiday.

Christian-Muslim Dialogue In Northern Nigeria Thaddeus Byimui Umaru,2013-08 Religion as a powerful impulse in human existence plays a paradoxical role in society as it both contributes significantly in shaping the spiritual, socio-political and economic lives of millions of people and also acts as a source of conflict. The sad experience of interreligious conflict in Northern Nigeria challenges the claim of Islam and Christianity to be religions of peace. However, understood as closely intertwined with culture and custom of a people, religion can be central in the establishment of peace and conflict resolution in and between communities. This text using the model of dialogue (Nostra Aetate) explores and presents the socio-political and theological resources available in Northern Nigeria (the locality) for a consistent peace building process.

Johnny Olson: A Voice in Time Randy West,2009 While Johnny Olson is best known as the original announcer on CBS' The Price Is Right, he was a seminal figure in radio and television whose prolific career is woven into the fabric of broadcasting's history. Using Olson's own words and documentation of his career, as well as his personal remembrances of the birth of modern media, this book traces the development of radio and TV from their experimental roots, through their growth to America's most influential sociological force. From Marconi to Match Game, from the birth of the CBS, NBC, ABC and Mutual radio networks, through the rise and demise of DuMont television, and a glorious history of game shows, this is the story of American broadcasting as experienced by a respected and celebrated participant, Johnny Olson - one of TV's most recognizable voices, who enjoyed a 58-year career that intersected with the stars, shows, and events that are part of our cultural tapestry. Randy West tells this story from a unique perspective, having enjoyed Olson's personal mentoring through his own impressive career that included work at Olson's podium as announcer on The Price is Right. Randy shares Olson's personal photos and personal notes, as well as the stories his mentor shared over their 15 year friendship. This is a fresh and fun look at TV as you've never seen it! Olson was Randy's mentor, and Randy has Olson's personal effects, old clippings, scripts and mementos collected during a 58-year career, as well as notes from Olson's planned autobiography. Those materials along with new interviews and research created an insider's look at the history of American broadcasting as lived by one of its better-known voices. - LARadio.com

Easter Parade Richard Yates, 2019-05-30 Easter Parade, uscito originariamente nel 1976, è un romanzo esemplare della sensibilità di Yates: una saga familiare senza concessioni al romanticismo, un limpido ritratto di esistenze borghesi in bilico tra la mediocrità e le aspirazioni. Le protagoniste sono sue sorelle, dal carattere diverso – Sarah più solare e convenzionale, Emily più chiusa e indipendente – ma sempre unite da un legame che a tratti si trasforma in rivalità; i loro destini si dipanano per quasi cinquant'anni, sullo sfondo di un'America che man mano perde la sua innocenza gioiosa (quella immortalata in un'istantanea della parata di Pasqua a cui si riferisce il titolo), alla ricerca di una «felicità» difficile tanto da identificare quanto da ottenere.
