The essence of those experiences added with the reader's imagination produces images of mindfulness that is a guiding source accentuating stronger faith, mediation practices, prayer, and a closer walk with the Creative Force, God. Anxieties, stresses, life's challenges, faith, decisions, and strengths gained through experiencing a story is meaningful because they are areas where we relate. These short stories transport the reader into a world of adventure, newness, and a place to contemplate our anxieties and stresses to manageable in meaningful ways of learning from life experiences. Moments of focusing on meditation, prayer, and living in the moment will grow into times of learning. The lessons from the past, living in the present, and planning for the future increases faith. We seize opportunities and lessons from life events, so by delving into "Peggy's World of Adventure" in the images of mindfulness, the reader has the chance to experience new concepts of handling life situations. Inspirational accounts create moods and opportunities to know ourselves inwardly. Our mind transforms our psyche, where happiness expands and overflows into our decisions and future. Our self-talk, the feelings and events that we dwell on, and our heart beliefs manifest in an outward expression called life. When we eliminate the negative actions and replace them with remembrances of positive life events, there is where our inward feelings and outward expressions develop. Peggy invites the reader to let his or herself live the experiences and, through the images of mindfulness, live in the present and walk in God's presence.

Lockdown Shakespeare Gemma Kate Allred,Benjamin Broadribb,Erin Sullivan,2022-06-16 This edited collection offers the first in-depth analysis and sourcebook for 'Lockdown Shakespeare'. It brings together scholars of stage, screen, early modern and adaptation studies to examine the work that emerged during the Covid-19 pandemic and considers issues of form, liveness, reception, presence and community. Interviews with theatre makers and artists illuminate the challenges and benefits of creating new work online, while educators consider how digital tools have facilitated the teaching of Shakespeare through performance. Together, the chapters in this book offer readers the definitive work on the performance and adaptation of Shakespeare online during the pandemic. From The Show Must Go Online, which presented Shakespeare's First Folio via YouTube, to Creation Theatre and Big Telly's interactive The Tempest and Macbeth, which used Zoom as their stage, the book documents the variety and richness of work that emerged during the pandemic. It reveals how, by taking Shakespeare online in new and innovative ways, the theatre industry sparked the evolution of new forms of performance with their own conventions, aesthetics and notions of liveness. Among the other productions discussed are Arden Theatre Company's A Midsummer Night's Dream, Tender Claws' 'The Under Presents: Tempest', The Shakespeare Ensemble's What You Will, Merced Shakespearefest's Ricardo II, CtrlAltRepeat's Midsummer Night Stream, Sally McLean's Shakespeare Republic: #AllTheWebsAStage (The Lockdown Chronicles) and Justina Taft Mattos's Moore – A Pacific Island Othello.
