In it we encounter, among many others, the mother searching for the death certificate of her dead Bulgarian husband; the young woman investigating the healing power of crop circles; and the angry man, adopted in childhood, who after twenty years searching for his birth father was rejected by him and now wants to form a rock band with other adoptees. Business Associations Lynn M. LoPucki,Andrew Verstein,2020-09-17 Business Associations: A Systems Approach is the first Business Associations casebook organized by function (decision-making, finance, investor litigation, investment transfer, etc.) instead of by entity type (partnerships, corporations, LLCs, etc.). Functional organization avoids repetition and makes full coverage of corporations, partnerships, LLCs, and limited partnerships possible in a four-, or even three-, credit course. The systems approach is the basis for several successful casebooks in other fields, most notably LoPucki, Warren and Lawless's Secured Transactions: A Systems Approach. The approach focuses on the actions of the lawyers, businesspeople, and government administrators who apply law rather than merely on abstract law. Business Associations: A Systems Approach provides hundreds of realistic, fact-rich problems in legal practice settings. Students apply their new knowledge of law and how the systems work to advise hypothetical clients. The cases are recent, heavily edited, and rarely longer than five pages. Professors and students will benefit from: Full coverage of agency, corporations, partnerships, LLCs, limited partnerships and the role of legal entities in society Tables, figures, photos, and one

How to Become a Product Demonstrator Don Levy, 2015-12-09 If you looking for a fun job that normally pays above minimum wage then this book will help you find it. Being an active product demonstrator with many years of experience has allowed me to write a guide that will teach you all about the different types of available jobs, places to find them and requirements for each. The best part of the book is the 1,000+ worldwide places to find a job. As I look back on the 80 years of my life I'm in wonder of all the different things that I have done. Many of which have helped me write this guide for becoming a Product Demonstrator. Back in my late 20's up to my 50's I was in the fair and carnival business in different capacities which included demonstrating a variety of products on the different fairgrounds and carnival lots that I was at. Fairs and carnivals operate for a certain length of time each year and then there is the off season. During this time I would do demonstrations at home shows, auto and boat shows, swap meets, music festivals or any place that a number of people would gather. I finally tired of being on the road all the time so I went into real estate and mortgage banking. When I retired from that I finally got bored and decided to find something to do. The main requirement was that along with making money it had to be fun. After a lot of research it sounded like mystery shopping would fit the bill. It was fun but the paperwork and low pay weren't that exciting so I started looking again and began seeing requests for product demonstrators. I wasn't excited about going on the road again but when I found out I didn't have to travel and could work when I wanted I decided to give it a try. Although the pay was a few dollars about minimum to start the job was fun. This was a little more than 5 years ago. After a couple of years I found that it was too hard to stand for the 6 hours in a demonstration. I looked around again and found that I could transition to an alcohol demonstrator job. It was less hours and more money so that's what I'm doing today. keywords: Product demonstrator, event specialist, demonstration, demonstrator, demonstrating, employment, pitchman
