☐ 400 YEARS OF AMERICA GEORGIE D. RUNYAN,2010-01-01 First published in 1892 by The New Era Company, 400 Years of America: Her Discovery, History, Achievements, and Politics was originally a supplement to a prohibitionist political magazine, published by the same company, titled The Question. Chapter 1 starts with U.S. history that predates Columbus, leading up to all the major points in American history until 1892 and the book's publication. Contents include Columbus' discovery of America in 1492 and other early settlements, the Massachusetts Bay pilgrims, the establishment of the Federation and the States, the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, and all accompanying presidencies and political parties. A comprehensive, if biased, history if ever there was one, 400 Years of America should interest any true history buff. Mrs. Georgie D. Runyan was a women's news editor in Springfield, OH, the same city in which 400 Years of America, her only book, and The Question, a political prohibitionist magazine, were published.
