Panel on Culture and Development Enrique V. Iglesias,N~stor Garc~a Canclini,Gilberto Gil,2005 Culture and development are linked. Culture is not a luxury good, but essential for attracting investments and generating economic growth and development. Culture can also contribute to diminish inequality and poverty. What kinds of cultural practices can help make development sustainable? The imposition of a single homogenous culture is a risk today, even as the commercialization and exploitation of marketed culture, which will impoverish the options of consumers and their dialogue with the creators.
